

Revision

Revision

1. Which sentence expresses an instant decision?
 - a. I'm going to study law.
 - b. I'll get that for you.
 - c. I'm meeting him at five.
 - d. I study every evening.
2. We _____ (have) a careers fair at school next Tuesday.
3. What is a 'career path'?
 - a. A type of appointment
 - b. The route someone's career follows over time
 - c. A phone call
 - d. A job interview question
4. Sustainability consultants, mentioned in the reading, help companies sell more products. — True / False
5. In the listening 'Booking a Careers Appointment', which day does the caller choose?
 - a. Thursday
 - b. Friday
 - c. Monday
 - d. Saturday
6. Could we _____ (change to a later date) our appointment?
7. Put the words in order: to / going / I / apply / internship / the / for / am
8. Which phrase would you use to ask someone to wait on the phone?
 - a. Hold the line, please.
 - b. Hang up now.
 - c. Put it down.
 - d. Call me later.
9. Rewrite using will for a promise: I never miss your calls (as a promise for the future). (I ____)
10. According to 'Preparing for a Job Interview', what should you do at the end of the interview?
 - a. Leave immediately without speaking
 - b. Thank the interviewer and ask when you'll hear back
 - c. Ask for a higher salary
 - d. Cancel the appointment

Support

1. Write 5 simple sentences about your future job using be going to.
2. Match 8 vocabulary words from this theme to their Turkish meanings.
3. Complete 5 gap-fill sentences choosing between will and be going to from a given list.
4. Listen again to 'Booking a Careers Appointment' and write down 3 phone phrases you hear.

Core

1. Write a 100-word paragraph about your future career plans using at least 3 future forms.
2. Write a short phone dialogue (8-10 lines) making a job interview appointment.
3. Complete 8 mixed practice questions on be going to, will, and present continuous for the future.
4. Write 5 original predictions about jobs in the year 2050 using will.

Extension

1. Write a 150-word article giving your opinion on which jobs will disappear and which will grow, using a mix of future forms.
2. Record yourself (or write a script for) a 1-minute phone call rescheduling an important appointment.
3. Research one real 'job of the future' and write a short paragraph explaining what it involves.
4. Write a dialogue between two friends disagreeing about which career is the best choice, using will and be going to naturally.