

Lesson Plans

Lesson 1 · Theme Introduction: What a Life (40 min)

Target language: Vocabulary for describing past lives, places and events

Materials: Board, Vocabulary handout, Projector (optional)

1. 5 min Warm-up: ask students to name one memorable event from their own past. (T-S)
2. 10 min Introduce the theme title 'What a Life' and present the theme's 'I can' goals. (T-S)
3. 15 min Present the first set of vocabulary items with example sentences; students guess meanings from context. (Individual/pairs)
4. 10 min Pair activity: students use two new words in original sentences about someone's life. (Pairs)

Assessment: Teacher monitors pair work and checks vocabulary use informally.

Support: Provide a word-meaning matching handout for the new vocabulary.

Core: Students produce original sentences with at least two new words.

Extension: Ask stronger students to use three or more new words in a short connected description.

Homework: Review the vocabulary list and write one sentence for each word.

Lesson 2 · Vocabulary Deep Dive: Lives and Places (40 min)

Target language: Vocabulary describing past lives and places

Materials: Vocabulary cards, Board

1. 5 min Quick recap of previous lesson's vocabulary through a rapid-fire quiz. (T-S)
2. 15 min Present remaining vocabulary items with example sentences and collocations. (T-S)
3. 10 min Students read a short original paragraph containing the new vocabulary and answer two comprehension questions. (Individual)
4. 10 min Pair check of answers and vocabulary card creation for personal study. (Pairs)

Assessment: Check comprehension question answers as a class.

Support: Allow students to use bilingual dictionaries for unfamiliar words.

Core: Students correctly answer both comprehension questions.

Extension: Ask stronger students to write a third, more complex sentence linking two vocabulary items.

Homework: Complete the vocabulary card set for self-study.

Lesson 3 · Noticing the Past Perfect (40 min)

Target language: Past Perfect form: had + past participle

Materials: Board, Notice sentences handout

1. 5 min Warm-up: ask which past action happened first in two simple example sentences. (T-S)
2. 10 min Present the notice sentences for the Past Perfect and ask the noticeQ discussion question. (T-S)
3. 15 min Guide students through the 'complete' discovery task, eliciting the rule for Past Perfect formation. (Individual/pairs)
4. 10 min Teacher explains rule_en/rule and when_en/when explicitly, checking understanding. (T-S)

Assessment: Monitor discovery task answers for correct Past Perfect forms.

Support: Provide the past participle list for irregular verbs used in the task.

Core: Students complete the discovery task with at least 4/5 correct.

Extension: Ask stronger students to explain the rule in their own words to a partner.

Homework: Write three original sentences using the Past Perfect based on the notice sentences.

Lesson 4 · Building Past Perfect Sentences (40 min)

Target language: Past Perfect affirmative, negative and question forms

Materials: Board, Cue cards

1. 5 min Recap the Past Perfect rule with a quick oral review. (T-S)
2. 15 min Guided 'build' practice: students construct full sentences from cues. (Pairs)
3. 10 min Present the form table (positive/negative/question/short answers) with examples. (T-S)
4. 10 min Students complete practice items 1-4 from grammar point g1. (Individual)

Assessment: Check practice items as a class, correcting common errors.

Support: Provide sentence frames for negative and question forms.

Core: Students correctly complete at least 3/4 practice items.

Extension: Ask stronger students to write one extra question-and-short-answer pair.

Homework: Complete remaining practice items from grammar point g1.

Lesson 5 · Avoiding Common Mistakes with the Past Perfect (40 min)

Target language: Common Past Perfect mistakes and corrections

Materials: Board, Mistake correction handout

1. 5 min Warm-up: show one incorrect sentence and ask students to spot the error. (T-S)
2. 15 min Present the mistakes/corrections pairs with bilingual explanations. (T-S)
3. 10 min Students work in pairs to correct five teacher-provided incorrect sentences. (Pairs)
4. 10 min Class review and discussion of correction strategies. (T-S)

Assessment: Review corrected sentences for accuracy.

Support: Provide the correct answer key after initial attempt for self-checking.

Core: Students correctly identify and fix at least 4/5 mistakes.

Extension: Ask stronger students to write two of their own incorrect/correct sentence pairs.

Homework: Proofread and correct a short paragraph with planted Past Perfect errors.

Lesson 6 · Reading: The Teacher Who Never Gave Up (40 min)

Target language: Past Perfect in a narrative biography text

Materials: Reading text handout, Board

1. 5 min Pre-reading: discuss the before questions and predict the content. (T-S)
2. 15 min Silent reading of the passage followed by paired discussion of general understanding.
(Individual/pairs)
3. 15 min Students answer the comprehension questions individually, then check in pairs. (Individual/pairs)
4. 5 min Class discussion of after-reading questions. (T-S)

Assessment: Check comprehension question answers as a class.

Support: Provide a simplified vocabulary glossary alongside the text.

Core: Students answer at least 4/5 comprehension questions correctly.

Extension: Ask stronger students to summarise the passage in three original sentences using the Past Perfect.

Homework: Write a short response to one after-reading discussion question.

Lesson 7 · Reading: A Return to the Abandoned House (40 min)

Target language: Past Perfect describing places and memories

Materials: Reading text handout, Board

1. 5 min Pre-reading discussion using the before questions. (T-S)
2. 15 min Guided reading with pauses to check understanding of key Past Perfect sentences. (T-S/individual)
3. 15 min Students complete the comprehension questions and discuss the writer's feelings (inference). (Individual/pairs)
4. 5 min Class discussion of after-reading questions. (T-S)

Assessment: Monitor inference-based answers for reasonable justification.

Support: Highlight key Past Perfect sentences in the text in advance for weaker readers.

Core: Students correctly answer at least 4/5 comprehension questions.

Extension: Ask stronger students to write one sentence inferring the writer's feelings with textual evidence.

Homework: Write three sentences describing a place from your own past using the Past Perfect.

Lesson 8 · Listening: Catching Up After Many Years (40 min)

Target language: Past Perfect in natural spoken dialogue; pronunciation of 'had'

Materials: Transcript handout (for teacher reading aloud or recording), Board

1. 5 min Pre-listening: discuss the pre-listening prompts and predict content. (T-S)
2. 10 min First listening (teacher reads dialogue aloud); students listen for gist. (T-S)
3. 5 min Focus on pronunciation: practise reduced 'had' /əd/ in fast speech versus full form. (T-S)
4. 15 min Second listening; students answer the comprehension questions individually then check in pairs. (Individual/pairs)
5. 5 min Post-listening discussion. (T-S)

Assessment: Check listening comprehension answers as a class.

Support: Provide the transcript for weaker students to read while listening.

Core: Students answer at least 3/4 listening questions correctly.

Extension: Ask stronger students to role-play a similar reunion dialogue in pairs.

Homework: Write two sentences using the reduced pronunciation pattern of 'had' you noticed.

Lesson 9 · Grammar Point 2: Past Perfect with Time Expressions (40 min)

Target language: before, after, already, by the time, never...before + Past Perfect

Materials: Board, Grammar point g2 handout

1. 5 min Warm-up: elicit time expressions students already know for sequencing. (T-S)
2. 10 min Present notice sentences for grammar point g2 and discuss the noticeQ. (T-S)
3. 15 min Guided completion of the discovery 'complete' and 'build' tasks. (Individual/pairs)
4. 10 min Compare 'before' vs 'by the time' using the compare table. (T-S)

Assessment: Check discovery task answers as a class.

Support: Provide a simple time-expression reference card.

Core: Students correctly complete at least 4/5 discovery items.

Extension: Ask stronger students to write two original sentences contrasting 'before' and 'by the time'.

Homework: Complete practice items from grammar point g2.

Lesson 10 · Speaking Workshop: Talking About the Past (40 min)

Target language: Spoken Past Perfect narratives and follow-up questions

Materials: Speaking task cards (s1, s2), Board

1. 5 min Warm-up: model one example using useful language for speaking task s1. (T-S)
2. 15 min Students complete speaking task s1 in pairs, describing three past events. (Pairs)
3. 15 min Students complete speaking task s2 in groups, describing a memorable place. (Groups of 3-4)
4. 5 min Whole-class feedback: a few students share their most interesting point. (T-S)

Assessment: Teacher circulates and notes accurate/inaccurate use of the Past Perfect for feedback.

Support: Provide sentence starters from the support notes in tasks s1 and s2.

Core: Students produce at least three accurate Past Perfect sentences across both tasks.

Extension: Extension students link their sentences into a connected mini-narrative as suggested in the task notes.

Homework: Write up one of your spoken answers from today as a short paragraph.

Lesson 11 · Writing Workshop and Theme Review (40 min)

Target language: Review of Past Perfect and theme vocabulary in extended writing

Materials: Writing task handout (w1 or w2), Board, Review question set

1. 5 min Quick review quiz using 3-4 items from the review question bank. (T-S)
2. 10 min Planning stage for writing task w1 or w2: students note down events and vocabulary to use. (Individual)
3. 15 min Students draft their paragraph using the checklist for self-monitoring. (Individual)
4. 10 min Peer feedback: students swap paragraphs and check each other's Past Perfect use against the checklist. (Pairs)

Assessment: Collect drafts for teacher feedback; use the writing checklist as the assessment criteria.

Support: Provide the structures and vocabulary lists from the writing task as scaffolding.

Core: Students produce a complete paragraph meeting the word count and checklist requirements.

Extension: Ask stronger students to add a second paragraph comparing the past situation to the present.

Homework: Finalise and proofread the writing task for submission; review for the theme test.
