

Lesson Plans

Lesson 1 · Introducing Unreal Past Situations (40 min)Target language: regret, turning point, opportunity, what if...?Materials: Board, Vocabulary cards, Projector (optional)

1. 5 min Warm-up: ask students to share one small decision that changed their week. (T-S)
2. 10 min Present key vocabulary (regret, turning point, opportunity) with example sentences. (T-S)
3. 10 min Pair work: match vocabulary to Turkish meanings and create one sentence each. (pairs)
4. 10 min Introduce the theme topic with 2-3 'what if' questions about famous events. (whole class)
5. 5 min Wrap-up: students predict what grammar structure will be needed to talk about unreal pasts. (T-S)

Assessment: Teacher checks vocabulary matching answers and listens for correct use of new words.

Support: Provide a word bank and Turkish translations on the board.

Core: Students form original sentences with the vocabulary unprompted.

Extension: Students explain the difference between two similar vocabulary items (e.g. regret vs. mistake).

Homework: Match 8 vocabulary words to their Turkish meanings.Lesson 2 · Noticing the Third Conditional (40 min)*Target language: If + had + past participle, would/could/might + have + past participleMaterials: Board, Grammar notice handout

1. 5 min Review: elicit vocabulary from Lesson 1 through quick Q&A. (whole class)
2. 10 min Present notice sentences for the third conditional; ask the noticing question. (T-S)
3. 10 min Guided discovery: students complete gap-fill items from the grammar section. (individual)
4. 10 min Pair check and feedback on the discovery task. (pairs)
5. 5 min Teacher summarises the rule in English and Turkish. (T-S)

Assessment: Teacher monitors pair discussions and reviews gap-fill answers together.

Support: Provide the answer bank alongside the gap-fill items.

Core: Students attempt items without the bank first, then check.

Extension: Students explain the rule to a partner in their own words.

Homework: Complete 4 third conditional sentences using the given word bank.

Lesson 3 · Building Third Conditional Sentences (40 min)

Target language: would have / could have / might have + past participle

Materials: Board, Cue cards

1. 5 min Warm-up: quick oral drill of would have / could have / might have with reduced pronunciation. (whole class)
2. 15 min Build activity: students construct full sentences from cue cards. (pairs)
3. 10 min Practice items from the grammar section, checked as a class. (individual then whole class)
4. 5 min Mistakes review: correct the two common error sentences from the grammar section. (T-S)
5. 5 min Exit ticket: students write one original third conditional sentence on paper. (individual)

Assessment: Exit ticket sentences checked for correct form before the next lesson.

Support: Provide sentence frames with blanks for the exit ticket.

Core: Students complete the exit ticket without frames.

Extension: Students write two connected third conditional sentences describing a chain of events.

Homework: Write 6 original third conditional sentences about real events from your own life.

Lesson 4 · Reading: The Letter I Never Sent (40 min)

Target language: third conditional in context

Materials: Reading text r1, Handout with questions

1. 5 min Pre-reading: discuss the before-reading prompts as a class. (whole class)
2. 15 min Students read 'The Letter I Never Sent' individually and answer comprehension questions. (individual)
3. 10 min Pair check of answers, focusing on third conditional sentences found in the text. (pairs)
4. 10 min Whole-class discussion using the after-reading prompts. (whole class)

Assessment: Teacher reviews comprehension question answers during pair check.

Support: Pre-teach any unfamiliar vocabulary before reading.

Core: Students answer all questions independently before checking.

Extension: Students identify and explain every third conditional sentence in the text.

Homework: Choose 8 vocabulary words from this theme and write one original sentence for each.

Lesson 5 · Noticing Wish + Past Perfect (40 min)

Target language: wish + had/hadn't + past participle

Materials: Board, Grammar notice handout g2

1. 5 min Warm-up: elicit one thing students wish had been different this week (light topics only). (whole class)
2. 10 min Present notice sentences for wish + past perfect and ask the noticing question. (T-S)
3. 10 min Guided discovery: complete gap-fill items from the g2 grammar section. (individual)
4. 10 min Pair check and comparison with second conditional wish (revision of present regrets). (pairs)
5. 5 min Teacher summarises the rule in English and Turkish. (T-S)

Assessment: Teacher checks gap-fill answers and listens for correct 'wish' + subject agreement.

Support: Provide the answer bank alongside gap-fill items.

Core: Students attempt items without the bank first, then check.

Extension: Students explain the compare table (wish + past simple vs. past perfect) to a partner.

Homework: Underline the correct verb form in 6 short wish + past perfect sentences.

Lesson 6 · Practising Wish + Past Perfect (40 min)

Target language: wish + had/hadn't + past participle

Materials: Board, Build activity cue cards g2

1. 5 min Warm-up: quick oral drill of wish + past perfect sentences. (whole class)
2. 15 min Build activity: students turn cues into full wish + past perfect sentences. (pairs)
3. 10 min Practice items from the g2 grammar section, checked as a class. (individual then whole class)
4. 5 min Mistakes review: correct the two common error sentences from the g2 grammar section. (T-S)
5. 5 min Exit ticket: students write one original wish + past perfect sentence about themselves. (individual)

Assessment: Exit ticket sentences checked before the next lesson.

Support: Provide sentence frames for the exit ticket.

Core: Students complete the exit ticket without frames.

Extension: Students write a wish sentence and a matching third conditional sentence about the same regret.

Homework: Complete 10 mixed practice items combining third conditional and wish + past perfect.

Lesson 7 · Listening: A Conversation About Regrets (40 min)

Target language: wish + past perfect, third conditional in spoken form

Materials: Listening transcript l1 (read aloud or recorded), Question handout

1. 5 min Pre-listening: discuss the pre-listening prompts as a class. (whole class)
2. 15 min Play/read the dialogue twice; students answer comprehension questions. (individual)
3. 10 min Pair check of answers, focusing on reduced forms like 'would've' and 'could've'. (pairs)
4. 10 min Whole-class discussion using the post-listening prompts. (whole class)

Assessment: Teacher reviews comprehension answers and models pronunciation of linked forms.

Support: Provide the transcript in writing for students who need extra support.

Core: Students answer from listening alone before checking the transcript.

Extension: Students identify every regret expressed in the dialogue and rephrase it in their own words.

Homework: Interview a family member about one regret they have and report it in writing using target structures.

Lesson 8 · Reading: What If the Bridge Hadn't Been Built? (40 min)

Target language: third conditional in a historical/discussion context

Materials: Reading text r2, Handout with questions

1. 5 min Pre-reading: discuss the before-reading prompts as a class. (whole class)
2. 15 min Students read 'What If the Bridge Hadn't Been Built?' individually and answer questions. (individual)
3. 10 min Pair check of answers, focusing on both grammar points found in the text. (pairs)
4. 10 min Whole-class discussion using the after-reading prompts. (whole class)

Assessment: Teacher reviews comprehension answers during pair check.

Support: Pre-teach unfamiliar vocabulary before reading.

Core: Students answer all questions independently before checking.

Extension: Students debate whether the council made the right decision, using target grammar.

Homework: Write a 150-word alternative history story imagining how a real event in your country could have turned out differently.

Lesson 9 • Speaking: What If...? and My Biggest What If (40 min)

Target language: third conditional and wish + past perfect in discussion

Materials: Speaking task cards s1 and s2, Timer

1. 5 min Warm-up: review useful language for both speaking tasks. (whole class)
2. 12 min Speaking task s1: 'What If...?' History Discussion in pairs. (pairs)
3. 15 min Speaking task s2: 'My Biggest What If' in groups of 3-4. (groups)
4. 8 min Groups share their most surprising story with the class. (whole class)

Assessment: Teacher monitors speaking tasks and notes accurate/inaccurate use of target grammar for feedback.

Support: Provide sentence starters and a list of sample historical events.

Core: Students produce at least two original sentences per task without prompts.

Extension: Students extend discussion into a chain of unreal consequences.

Homework: Record yourself (or prepare a script) giving spoken advice using 'should have' for three imagined past mistakes.

Lesson 10 • Writing Workshop: Turning Points and Regrets (40 min)

Target language: third conditional and wish + past perfect in writing

Materials: Writing task handouts w1 and w2, Checklists

1. 5 min Warm-up: review useful structures and vocabulary for writing. (whole class)
2. 10 min Planning: students plan writing task w1 using the plan steps provided. (individual)
3. 15 min Drafting: students write their paragraph for w1 or w2 (teacher choice or student choice). (individual)
4. 10 min Peer review using the self-check checklist, then teacher gives quick individual feedback. (pairs)

Assessment: Teacher collects drafts and checks for correct use of both grammar points using the checklist.

Support: Provide sentence starters and a shorter word count target.

Core: Students complete the full task independently using the checklist.

Extension: Students complete both writing tasks (w1 and w2) and compare structures used.

Homework: Write a short paragraph (80-100 words) about one regret, using wish + past perfect at least twice.

Lesson 11 · Theme Review and Assessment (40 min)

Target language: review of third conditional and wish + past perfect

Materials: Review items, Test sections, Rubrics
