Book alignment

Theme	Follows the topic scope of Theme 5 (Ders Kitabı pp. 63-74), imagining unreal past events and expressing regrets, with entirely original texts and tasks.
Outcome	Covers the 24 outcome codes for this theme through original listening, reading, speaking and writing tasks built around unreal past situations.
Vocabulary	22 original words related to memory, regret and alternative history, each with an original example sentence matching the theme's scope.
Grammar	Two original grammar entries covering the Third Conditional and Wish + Past Perfect, matching the grammar scope of Theme 5 without copying any book exercises.
Reading	Two original reading passages (a personal reflection and a town history) written at B1.3 level, not taken from the book's own reading texts.
Listening	One original two-speaker dialogue about personal regrets, written specifically for this theme's target grammar.
Speaking	Two original speaking tasks — a historical 'what if' discussion and a personal regret-sharing activity — practising the theme's grammar orally.
Writing	Two original writing tasks — a reflective paragraph and an informal letter — both requiring the theme's target grammar structures.
Assessment	An original mixed-skill review, theme test and three rubrics assessing vocabulary, grammar, reading, listening, speaking and writing for this theme.
