

Lesson Plans

Lesson 1 · Introducing Values and Norms (40 min)Target language: value, norm, opinion, customMaterials: Board, Vocabulary cards, Projector (optional)

1. 5 min Warm-up: ask students to name one value they think is important and why. (T-S)
2. 10 min Present key vocabulary (value, norm, honesty, respect, kindness) with example sentences. (T-S)
3. 10 min Pair work: match vocabulary to Turkish meanings and create one sentence each. (pairs)
4. 10 min Introduce the theme topic with a short listening extract of the theme's opinions and comments. (whole class)
5. 5 min Wrap-up: students predict what grammar structure will be useful for linking opinions. (T-S)

Assessment: Teacher checks vocabulary matching answers and listens for correct use of new words.

Support: Provide a word bank and Turkish translations on the board.

Core: Students form original sentences with the vocabulary unprompted.

Extension: Students explain the difference between two similar vocabulary items (e.g. respect vs. courtesy).

Homework: Match 8 vocabulary words to their Turkish meanings.

Lesson 2 · Building Vocabulary: Values and Norms (40 min)

Target language: integrity, empathy, tolerance, fairness

Materials: Board, Vocabulary cards set 2

1. 5 min Review: quick recall game with vocabulary from Lesson 1. (whole class)
2. 10 min Present the second set of vocabulary with example sentences and collocations. (T-S)
3. 15 min Group activity: sort vocabulary cards into categories such as 'about others' and 'about myself'. (groups)
4. 5 min Quick oral quiz: teacher gives a definition, students say the word. (whole class)
5. 5 min Wrap-up: students choose their favourite new word and explain why. (T-S)

Assessment: Teacher monitors group sorting and checks quiz answers.

Support: Provide picture cues alongside vocabulary cards.

Core: Students justify their category choices with a sentence.

Extension: Students write a short sentence connecting two vocabulary items.

Homework: Complete 5 gap-fill sentences choosing the correct correlative conjunction pair from a word bank.

Lesson 3 · Noticing Correlative Conjunctions (40 min)

Target language: both...and, either...or, neither...nor, not only...but also

Materials: Board, Grammar notice handout

1. 5 min Review: elicit vocabulary from Lessons 1-2 through quick Q&A. (whole class)
2. 10 min Present notice sentences for correlative conjunctions; ask the noticing question. (T-S)
3. 10 min Guided discovery: students complete gap-fill items from the grammar section. (individual)
4. 10 min Pair check and feedback on the discovery task. (pairs)
5. 5 min Teacher summarises the rule in English and Turkish. (T-S)

Assessment: Teacher monitors pair discussions and reviews gap-fill answers together.

Support: Provide the answer bank alongside the gap-fill items.

Core: Students attempt items without the bank first, then check.

Extension: Students explain the rule to a partner in their own words.

Homework: Underline the correct conjunction pair in 6 short sentences about values.

Lesson 4 · Practising Correlative Conjunctions (40 min)

Target language: both...and, either...or, neither...nor, not only...but also

Materials: Board, Cue cards

1. 5 min Warm-up: quick oral drill of the four conjunction pairs with correct stress. (whole class)
2. 15 min Build activity: students construct full sentences from cue cards. (pairs)
3. 10 min Practice items from the grammar section, checked as a class. (individual then whole class)
4. 5 min Mistakes review: correct the common error sentences from the grammar section. (T-S)
5. 5 min Exit ticket: students write one original sentence using a correlative conjunction. (individual)

Assessment: Exit ticket sentences checked for correct form before the next lesson.

Support: Provide sentence frames with blanks for the exit ticket.

Core: Students complete the exit ticket without frames.

Extension: Students write two connected sentences using two different conjunction pairs.

Homework: Write 6 original sentences using correlative conjunctions about people you know.

Lesson 5 · Reading: Good Manners Around the World (40 min)

Target language: correlative conjunctions in context

Materials: Reading text r1, Handout with questions

1. 5 min Pre-reading: discuss the before-reading prompts as a class. (whole class)
2. 15 min Students read 'Good Manners Around the World' individually and answer comprehension questions. (individual)
3. 10 min Pair check of answers, focusing on correlative conjunctions found in the text. (pairs)
4. 10 min Whole-class discussion using the after-reading prompts. (whole class)

Assessment: Teacher reviews comprehension question answers during pair check.

Support: Pre-teach any unfamiliar vocabulary before reading.

Core: Students answer all questions independently before checking.

Extension: Students identify and explain every correlative conjunction sentence in the text.

Homework: Copy and complete 4 sentences using both...and, given the two ideas to join.

Lesson 6 · Reading: What Makes a Good Person? (40 min)

Target language: correlative conjunctions in an opinion text

Materials: Reading text r2, Handout with questions

1. 5 min Pre-reading: discuss the before-reading prompts as a class. (whole class)
2. 15 min Students read 'What Makes a Good Person?' individually and answer questions. (individual)
3. 10 min Pair check of answers, focusing on the writer's opinion and attitude. (pairs)
4. 10 min Whole-class discussion using the after-reading prompts. (whole class)

Assessment: Teacher reviews comprehension answers during pair check.

Support: Pre-teach unfamiliar vocabulary before reading.

Core: Students answer all questions independently before checking.

Extension: Students write one sentence summarising the writer's overall opinion.

Homework: Complete 10 mixed practice items on correlative conjunctions.

Lesson 7 · Listening: Which Value Matters Most? (40 min)

Target language: correlative conjunctions in spoken opinions

Materials: Listening transcript l1 (read aloud or recorded), Question handout

1. 5 min Pre-listening: discuss the pre-listening prompts as a class. (whole class)
2. 15 min Play/read the dialogue twice; students answer comprehension questions. (individual)
3. 10 min Pair check of answers, focusing on the correlative conjunctions used in the dialogue. (pairs)
4. 10 min Whole-class discussion using the post-listening prompts. (whole class)

Assessment: Teacher reviews comprehension answers and models pronunciation of the conjunction pairs.

Support: Provide the transcript in writing for students who need extra support.

Core: Students answer from listening alone before checking the transcript.

Extension: Students identify every correlative conjunction used in the dialogue.

Homework: Choose 8 vocabulary words from this theme and write one original sentence for each.

Lesson 8 · Listening: Customs from My Grandmother's Village (40 min)

Target language: correlative conjunctions in a spoken monologue

Materials: Listening transcript I2 (read aloud or recorded), Question handout

1. 5 min Pre-listening: discuss the pre-listening prompts as a class. (whole class)
2. 15 min Play/read the monologue twice; students answer comprehension questions. (individual)
3. 10 min Pair check of answers, focusing on the speaker's attitude toward the custom. (pairs)
4. 10 min Whole-class discussion using the post-listening prompts. (whole class)

Assessment: Teacher reviews comprehension answers and asks follow-up questions about attitude.

Support: Provide the transcript in writing for students who need extra support.

Core: Students answer from listening alone before checking the transcript.

Extension: Students summarise the speaker's message in their own words.

Homework: Write a 150-word paragraph comparing values in two different situations, using at least three correlative conjunction pairs.

Lesson 9 · Speaking: Values and Customs (40 min)

Target language: correlative conjunctions in spoken opinions and comments

Materials: Speaking task cards s1 and s2, Timer

1. 5 min Warm-up: review useful language for expressing opinions and making comments. (whole class)
2. 12 min Speaking task s1: 'Which Value Matters Most?' in pairs. (pairs)
3. 15 min Speaking task s2: 'Comparing Customs' in groups of 3-4. (groups)
4. 8 min Groups share their most interesting comparison with the class. (whole class)

Assessment: Teacher monitors speaking tasks and notes accurate/inaccurate use of correlative conjunctions for feedback.

Support: Provide sentence starters and a simplified list of values.

Core: Students produce at least two original sentences per task without prompts.

Extension: Students challenge a partner's opinion with a polite counter-argument.

Homework: Interview a family member about a value they consider important and report it in writing.

Lesson 10 · Writing Workshop: Opinions on Values (40 min)

Target language: correlative conjunctions in written opinions

Materials: Writing task handouts w1 and w2, Checklists

1. 5 min Warm-up: review useful structures and vocabulary for writing an opinion. (whole class)
2. 10 min Planning: students plan writing task w1 using the plan steps provided. (individual)
3. 15 min Drafting: students write their paragraph for w1 or w2 (teacher choice or student choice).
(individual)
4. 10 min Peer review using the self-check checklist, then teacher gives quick individual feedback. (pairs)

Assessment: Teacher collects drafts and checks for correct use of correlative conjunctions using the checklist.

Support: Provide sentence starters and a shorter word count target.

Core: Students complete the full task independently using the checklist.

Extension: Students complete both writing tasks (w1 and w2) and compare structures used.

Homework: Write 5 sentences with two clauses each, combining a value-related opinion with a correlative conjunction.

Lesson 11 · Theme Review and Assessment (40 min)

Target language: review of correlative conjunctions and theme vocabulary

Materials: Review items, Test sections, Rubrics

1. 5 min Warm-up: quick oral review of the four correlative conjunction pairs. (whole class)
2. 15 min Students complete the mixed-skill review items individually. (individual)
3. 15 min Students complete the short theme test (Vocabulary, Grammar, Reading, Listening sections).
(individual)
4. 5 min Whole-class feedback: go over the most commonly missed items. (whole class)

Assessment: Test and review results scored against the rubrics; used to plan any follow-up support.

Support: Allow extra time and provide a vocabulary reference sheet during the review (not the test).

Core: Students complete review and test within the standard time.

Extension: Students who finish early complete the challenge items from the grammar section.

Homework: Prepare a 1-minute spoken opinion about the most important value for a good citizen, using at least two correlative conjunction pairs.