Book alignment

Theme	Follows the topic scope of Theme 9 (Ders Kitabı pp. 111-122), describing friends, places and events and asking for/giving clarification, with entirely original texts and tasks.
Outcome	Covers the 24 outcome codes for this theme through original listening, reading, speaking and writing tasks built around friendship and clarification.
Vocabulary	24 original words related to friendship, personality and social gatherings, each with an original example sentence matching the theme's scope.
Grammar	Two original grammar entries covering defining relative clauses (who/which/that/whose/where/when/why) and the contrast between defining and non-defining clauses, matching the grammar scope of Theme 9 without copying any book exercises.
Reading	Two original reading passages (a personal reflection about a supportive friend and an account of a class reunion) written at B1.3 level, not taken from the book's own reading texts.
Listening	One original two-speaker dialogue about clarifying details in a photo of friends, written specifically to practise this theme's clarification language.
Speaking	Two original speaking tasks — describing a friend and recounting a memorable event with friends — both requiring clarification exchanges and relative clauses.
Writing	Two original writing tasks — a descriptive friend portrait and a clarification message — both requiring the theme's target grammar and functional language.
Assessment	An original mixed-skill review, theme test and three rubrics assessing vocabulary, grammar, reading, listening, speaking and writing for this theme.
