S1 Guess My Country

Whole class, mingling · 10–12 dk

Think of a country. Walk around the class and answer your classmates' yes/no questions with 'to be' and 'can' so they can guess your country. Then guess theirs.

Is it in Europe?

Can you see the sea from the capital?

Are people from this country called...?

Yes, it is. / No, it isn't. / Yes, you can. / No, you can't.

1. Secretly choose a country you know something about.
2. Find a partner and let them ask up to 5 yes/no questions with 'is/are' or 'can'.
3. Answer honestly with short answers.
4. Swap roles, then find a new partner.
5. After 4–5 rounds, share one interesting guess with the class.

S2 International School — Interview a Classmate

Pairs · 15–20 dk

Interview a partner about their country, nationality, capital, a tourist attraction and a national day (real or invented, for creative-writing purposes). Take notes, then prepare to present your partner to the class as part of the 'International School' presentation.

What's your nationality?

What's the capital of your country?

What can tourists do or see there?

This is [name] from [country]. He/She is... You can visit...

1. In pairs, take turns asking the interview questions and noting the answers.
2. Check spelling of country/capital names together.
3. Prepare 4–5 sentences introducing your partner and their country.
4. Practise your short presentation with your partner.
5. Present your partner to a small group or the whole class.

My Country Fact File

W1

60-80 words

Write a short fact file about your own country (or an invented country, for creative-writing purposes) for an international pen pal. Include your nationality, capital city, official language, and at least two things tourists can do or see there.

PLAN

1. Choose a title for your fact file, e.g. 'All About Türkiye'.
2. Note your nationality, capital city and official language.
3. List two or three things tourists can see or do.
4. Add one sentence about a national day or celebration.
5. Check your grammar and punctuation.
