

Speaking Writing

Speaking

Giving Health Advice

Pairs · 8 min

Take turns describing a symptom and giving your partner advice using should/shouldn't.

Useful language: I have a..., You should..., You shouldn't..., Maybe you should see a doctor.

1. Student A describes a symptom.
2. Student B gives two pieces of advice.
3. Swap roles and repeat.

Writing

A Well-Being Guide

100-120 words

Write a short guide giving advice on how students can look after their physical and mental well-being.

Plan:

1. Give two pieces of advice about physical health using should.
2. Give one piece of advice about mental well-being.
3. Mention one thing students shouldn't do.

Checklist:

- ☐ I used should/shouldn't correctly.
- ☐ I included physical and mental well-being advice.
- ☐ I used at least three theme vocabulary words.

