

Grammar

Imperatives — Classroom Instructions

Use the base form of the verb (without 'you') to give instructions. Add 'Don't' for negative instructions.

Yönerge vermek için fiilin yalın hâli kullanılır. Olumsuz yönergeler için başına 'Don't' eklenir.

When? Use imperatives for classroom instructions, rules, and short commands.

Sınıf içi yönergeler, kurallar ve kısa komutlar için kullanılır.

Positive

- Open your notebook.

Negative

- Don't shout.

Common mistakes

- ~~You open your book.~~ → Open your book.

1. _____ (open) your notebooks, please.
2. _____ (not/talk) while others are speaking. (negative instruction)
3. Which is a correct instruction?
 - a. You raise your hand.
 - b. Raise your hand.
 - c. Raising your hand.
 - d. To raise your hand.
4. Turn this into an instruction: students should hand in homework now. (Use imperative)

