

Grammar

Countable/Uncountable Nouns & Some/Any

Use 'some' in positive sentences and 'any' in negative sentences and questions, with both countable and uncountable nouns.

'Some' olumlu cümlelerde, 'any' ise olumsuz cümlelerde ve sorularda kullanılır; hem sayılabilir hem sayılamayan isimlerle kullanılır.

When? Use some/any when talking about quantities of food and ingredients.

Yiyecek ve malzeme miktarlarından bahsederken kullanılır.

Positive

- There is some rice in the cupboard.

Negative

- There isn't any milk left.

Question

- Is there any cheese?

Short answers

- Yes, there is some. / No, there isn't any.

Common mistakes

- ~~We don't have some bread.~~ → We don't have any bread.

1. We have _____ (some/any) fresh vegetables today.
2. Is there _____ (some/any) spicy food on the menu?
3. Choose the correct sentence.
 - a. I don't have some money.
 - b. I don't have any money.
 - c. I have any money.
 - d. I not have any money.
4. Rewrite: there is no rice in the kitchen. (Use isn't any)

