

Speaking Writing

Speaking

Weather Report

Pairs · 8 min

Act out a short weather report describing current conditions (use present continuous) and give advice to listeners.

Useful language: It is raining/snowing..., We advise you to..., Don't forget to bring...

1. Choose an extreme weather condition.
2. Describe what is happening now using present continuous.
3. Give one piece of safety advice.

Writing

An Adventure in Nature

60-80 words

Write a short paragraph about a real or imaginary adventure in nature, including the weather and what equipment you used.

Plan:

1. Say where you went and with whom.
2. Describe the weather using present continuous.
3. Describe one exciting or difficult moment.

Checklist:

- ☐ I used present continuous correctly.
- ☐ I described the weather.
- ☐ I mentioned equipment or a trail.

