Lesson Plans

Lesson 1 · Continents, Countries and Nationalities (40 min)

Target language: Which continent is... on? What nationality is...? Where is... from?

Materials: World map or projector, Vocabulary cards, Coursebook

1. 5 min Warm-up: show a world map and elicit continent names students already know. (T-S)
2. 10 min Present new vocabulary (continent, nationality, population, border, culture) with example sentences. (T-S)
3. 10 min Pair work: students ask and answer 'Where is... from? What nationality is...?' using flashcards. (pairs)
4. 10 min Class quiz: name the continent of given countries and nationalities. (individual)
5. 5 min Wrap-up: students share one new fact about a continent/nationality they learned. (T-S)

Assessment: Teacher monitors accuracy of vocabulary use during pair work and the class quiz.

Support: Give weaker students a matching worksheet (country–nationality–continent).

Core: Standard pair-work task as planned.

Extension: Ask stronger students to name the capital city of each country discussed.

Homework: Match 8 vocabulary words to their Turkish meanings (support homework item 1).

Lesson 2 · Present Perfect: Life Experiences (40 min)

Target language: I have visited... / Have you ever...?

Materials: Grammar presentation slides, Coursebook, Board

1. 5 min Notice stage: show example sentences with 'have/has + past participle' and ask what students notice. (T-S)
2. 10 min Explain form and use of the present perfect for life experiences; check with short Q&A. (T-S)
3. 10 min Complete the gap-fill discover activity individually, then check as a class. (individual)
4. 10 min Build stage: students form full sentences from cue words in pairs. (pairs)
5. 5 min Wrap-up: 3-4 students share one 'I have never...' sentence about themselves. (T-S)

Assessment: Teacher checks gap-fill answers and monitors sentence-building accuracy.

Support: Provide a verb bank of past participles for the gap-fill task.

Core: Standard discover activities as planned.

Extension: Ask fast finishers to write 3 extra sentences about a family member's experiences.

Homework: Write 6 original present perfect sentences (core homework item 1).

Lesson 3 · Present Perfect: Since, For, Already, Just (40 min)

Target language: since 2015 / for five years / already / just

Materials: Coursebook, Practice worksheet, Board

1. 5 min Warm-up: elicit the difference between 'since' and 'for' using a timeline on the board. (T-S)
2. 10 min Present the compare table (since vs for) and the use of already/just with example sentences. (T-S)
3. 15 min Students complete practice items (gap-fill, mcq, judge) individually then check in pairs. (individual/pairs)
4. 5 min Mistake correction: show common mistakes and ask students to correct them. (T-S)
5. 5 min Wrap-up: quick oral round, each student makes one sentence with since/for/already/just. (T-S)

Assessment: Teacher reviews practice worksheet answers for correct use of since/for/already/just.

Support: Give sentence frames with the time expression already inserted.

Core: Standard practice worksheet as planned.

Extension: Challenge items: rewrite sentences using 'since' instead of 'for' and vice versa.

Homework: Complete challenge items from grammar point g1.

Lesson 4 · Reading: A World of Continents and Cultures (40 min)

Target language: vocabulary from reading text r1

Materials: Reading text r1 handout, Coursebook

1. 5 min Pre-reading: discuss the before-reading questions as a class. (T-S)
2. 10 min Silent reading of text r1; students guess meaning of unknown words from context. (individual)
3. 15 min Students answer comprehension questions individually, then check in pairs. (individual/pairs)
4. 5 min Whole-class check of answers with reference back to the text. (T-S)
5. 5 min After-reading discussion: interesting customs from other countries. (T-S)

Assessment: Teacher checks comprehension question answers for accuracy.

Support: Pre-teach key vocabulary before reading and allow use of a dictionary.

Core: Standard comprehension questions as planned.

Extension: Ask stronger students to summarise the text in 3 sentences.

Homework: Answer 5 comprehension questions about reading text r2 in full sentences (core homework item 4) — to prepare for the next reading lesson.

Lesson 5 · Shopping for Food: Vocabulary (40 min)

Target language: grocery, market, bill, fresh, packaged, portion, diet

Materials: Vocabulary flashcards, Realia/pictures of food, Coursebook

1. 5 min Warm-up: brainstorm food shopping words students already know. (T-S)
2. 10 min Present new vocabulary with pictures and example sentences. (T-S)
3. 10 min Pair work: students describe their own food preferences using new vocabulary. (pairs)
4. 10 min Vocabulary matching/gap-fill practice individually. (individual)
5. 5 min Wrap-up: each student says one food preference sentence. (T-S)

Assessment: Teacher monitors vocabulary use in pair work and checks matching/gap-fill answers.

Support: Provide a picture-word matching worksheet.

Core: Standard vocabulary practice as planned.

Extension: Ask students to add two more shopping-related words they know and define them.

Homework: Circle 'some' or 'any' in 6 short shopping sentences (support homework item 3) or write a shopping list (core homework item 2).

Lesson 6 · Countable/Uncountable Nouns: Some, Any (40 min)

Target language: some, any + countable/uncountable nouns

Materials: Coursebook, Compare table handout, Board

1. 5 min Notice stage: show example sentences with some/any and elicit the pattern. (T-S)
2. 10 min Present the compare table and explain countable vs uncountable nouns. (T-S)
3. 10 min Complete stage: gap-fill with some/any individually. (individual)
4. 10 min Build stage: pairs build full shopping sentences from cue words. (pairs)
5. 5 min Wrap-up: quick error-correction round using the mistakes list. (T-S)

Assessment: Teacher checks gap-fill and build-stage sentences for correct use of some/any.

Support: Provide a sorted word bank (countable column / uncountable column).

Core: Standard complete and build activities as planned.

Extension: Ask fast finishers to write 3 extra sentences with tricky nouns (e.g. fruit, advice).

Homework: Complete practice items from grammar point g2.

Lesson 7 · Countable/Uncountable Nouns: Much, Many (40 min)

Target language: How much...? How many...?

Materials: Coursebook, Shopping dialogue handout

1. 5 min Warm-up: quick oral drill, teacher says a noun and students say 'much' or 'many'. (T-S)
2. 10 min Review much/many rule and practise with mcq/gap items. (individual)
3. 15 min Groups prepare a short shopping dialogue using much/many/some/any. (groups)
4. 5 min Two groups perform their dialogue for the class. (groups)
5. 5 min Wrap-up: class votes on the most natural-sounding dialogue. (T-S)

Assessment: Teacher assesses accuracy of much/many use in the shopping dialogues.

Support: Give a dialogue frame with gaps for weaker groups to complete.

Core: Standard dialogue-writing task as planned.

Extension: Ask stronger groups to include a disagreement about price.

Homework: Write a short shopping list and label items as countable/uncountable (core homework item 2).

Lesson 8 · Listening: At the Local Market (40 min)

Target language: vocabulary and quantities from listening I1

Materials: Listening transcript I1 (read aloud or recorded), Coursebook

1. 5 min Pre-listening: discuss where students usually buy fresh food. (T-S)
2. 10 min First listening (gist): students note who is speaking and what they are buying. (individual)
3. 15 min Second listening (detail): students answer comprehension questions. (individual)
4. 5 min Whole-class check of answers. (T-S)
5. 5 min Post-listening discussion: similar shopping experiences students have had. (T-S)

Assessment: Teacher checks listening comprehension question answers for accuracy.

Support: Give students the questions before listening and pre-teach key words.

Core: Standard two-listening approach as planned.

Extension: Ask stronger students to write the dialogue's ending from memory before checking.

Homework: Write a short dialogue between a customer and a seller (extension homework item 3).

Lesson 9 · Question Tags (40 min)

Target language: ..., isn't it? / ..., haven't you? / ..., don't they?

Materials: Coursebook, Question tag practice handout

1. 5 min Notice stage: show example sentences with question tags and elicit the pattern (positive → negative, negative → positive). (T-S)
2. 10 min Explain the rule and form of question tags with example sentences. (T-S)
3. 10 min Complete stage: gap-fill practice individually, checked as a class. (individual)
4. 10 min Build stage: pairs add correct tags to statements about food and countries. (pairs)
5. 5 min Wrap-up: quick oral round using question tags about classmates. (T-S)

Assessment: Teacher monitors accuracy of question tags during pair and oral work.

Support: Provide a simple chart showing positive → negative and negative → positive patterns.

Core: Standard complete and build activities as planned.

Extension: Challenge items: rewrite statements with tricky verbs (can, have, be) correctly.

Homework: Write 5 sentences about a country with correct question tags (core homework item 3).

Lesson 10 · Reading: Food Around the World (40 min)

Target language: vocabulary from reading text r2

Materials: Reading text r2 handout, Coursebook

1. 5 min Pre-reading: discuss favourite traditional dishes. (T-S)
2. 10 min Silent reading of text r2; students underline unfamiliar words. (individual)
3. 15 min Students answer comprehension questions, focusing on specific information and writer's opinion. (individual/pairs)
4. 5 min Whole-class check of answers with reference to the text. (T-S)
5. 5 min After-reading discussion: comparing shopping and eating habits with the text. (T-S)

Assessment: Teacher checks comprehension answers, especially identification of writer's opinion.

Support: Provide a vocabulary glossary alongside the text.

Core: Standard comprehension questions as planned.

Extension: Ask stronger students to identify and explain the writer's opinion in the final paragraph.

Homework: Write a 150-word text comparing food culture in two countries (extension homework item 1).

Lesson 11 · Speaking: Have You Ever...? (40 min)

Target language: Have you ever...? / I've never... / question tags

Materials: Speaking task s1 handout, Coursebook

1. 5 min Warm-up: teacher models 2-3 'Have you ever...?' questions with the class. (T-S)
2. 10 min Students prepare five present-perfect questions individually. (individual)
3. 15 min Pair interviews: students ask and answer their questions, adding question tags. (pairs)
4. 5 min Students report one interesting fact about their partner to the class. (T-S)
5. 5 min Wrap-up: teacher gives feedback on common errors heard. (T-S)

Assessment: Teacher monitors accuracy of present perfect and question tags during pair interviews.

Support: Give a list of ready-made questions for weaker students to choose from.

Core: Standard task as planned with own questions.

Extension: Add a 'How long...?' follow-up question with since/for.

Homework: Prepare 5 'Have you ever...?' interview questions and record answers from a family member (extension homework item 2).

Lesson 12 · Speaking: Shopping Role-Play (40 min)

Target language: Do you have any...? / How much/many...? / I'd like some...

Materials: Speaking task s2 handout, Props (optional play food)

1. 5 min Warm-up: review useful shopping language as a class. (T-S)
2. 10 min Groups decide roles and prepare a short list of food items for sale. (groups)
3. 15 min Groups prepare and rehearse their shopping role-play. (groups)
4. 5 min Two or three groups perform their role-play for the class. (groups)
5. 5 min Wrap-up: class feedback on the use of much/many/some/any. (T-S)

Assessment: Teacher assesses accuracy and fluency during the group role-plays using the speaking rubric.

Support: Provide a dialogue frame with sentence starters for weaker groups.

Core: Standard role-play task as planned.

Extension: Add a special dietary request (e.g. vegetarian, no spicy food) to the role-play.

Homework: Review vocabulary and grammar notes in preparation for the writing lesson.

Lesson 13 · Writing: My Country and My Food Preferences (40 min)

Target language: review structures from writing tasks w1 and w2

Materials: Writing task w1 and w2 handouts, Checklist

1. 5 min Warm-up: review useful structures and vocabulary for the writing tasks. (T-S)
2. 10 min Students plan writing task w1 (country and food culture) using the planning steps. (individual)
3. 15 min Students draft writing task w1, then briefly plan and draft w2 (shopping list and preferences) if time allows. (individual)
4. 5 min Peer-check: students swap work and use the checklist to give feedback. (pairs)
5. 5 min Wrap-up: 2-3 students share one sentence from their writing. (T-S)

Assessment: Teacher collects drafts and assesses using the writing rubric, focusing on content and grammar accuracy.

Support: Provide a paragraph frame with sentence starters.

Core: Standard planning and drafting process as outlined.

Extension: Ask stronger students to add a comparison with a second country or dish.

Homework: Finish and edit writing tasks w1 and w2 for homework, using the self-check checklists.

Lesson 14 · Theme Review and Test (40 min)

Target language: review of all theme 6 structures and vocabulary

Materials: Review questions, Theme test, Coursebook

1. 10 min Whole-class review game using the review question set (vocabulary, grammar, reading, listening). (T-S)
2. 5 min Quick error-correction recap of the most common mistakes from the theme. (T-S)
3. 20 min Students complete the theme test individually. (individual)
4. 5 min Wrap-up: self-assessment — students tick the 'I can...' statements from the theme into they now feel confident about. (individual)

Assessment: Theme test results and self-assessment checklist provide formal and informal assessment of theme outcomes.

Support: Allow extra time and a vocabulary reference sheet during the test for students who need it.

Core: Standard test conditions as planned.

Extension: Fast finishers write one extra sentence for each grammar point covered in the theme.

Homework: No new homework; review any incorrect test answers for the next class.
