

Lesson Plans

Lesson 1 · Introducing Future Jobs (40 min)Target language: Future job vocabularyMaterials: board, vocabulary handout

1. 5 min Warm-up: brainstorm jobs students know in English. (T-S)
2. 10 min Present new vocabulary with example sentences and Turkish meanings. (T-S)
3. 10 min Students match words to definitions in pairs. (pairs)
4. 10 min Students use 5 new words in original sentences about jobs. (individual)
5. 5 min Quick class feedback and correction. (T-S)

Assessment: Check vocabulary matching accuracy.

Support: Provide a word bank with Turkish translations.

Core: Standard matching and sentence writing.

Extension: Ask stronger students to write a sentence using two words together.

Homework: Learn the 6 new words for a short quiz.Lesson 2 · Be Going To: Plans and Predictions (40 min)*Target language: be going toMaterials: board, grammar worksheet

1. 5 min Show notice sentences with be going to and ask what students observe. (T-S)
2. 10 min Explain rule (plans vs. evidence-based predictions) bilingually. (T-S)
3. 10 min Complete gap-fill practice in pairs. (pairs)
4. 10 min Build sentences from cues individually. (individual)
5. 5 min Check answers as a class. (T-S)

Assessment: Monitor accuracy during gap-fill and cue-building tasks.

Support: Give sentence starters.

Core: Standard gap-fill and cue exercises.

Extension: Ask students to write a prediction based on visible evidence in the classroom.

Homework: Write 5 sentences about future plans using be going to.

Lesson 3 · Be Going To: Speaking Practice (40 min)

Target language: be going to

Materials: board

1. 5 min Review be going to form with quick oral drill. (T-S)
2. 10 min Students prepare notes about their own future job plan. (individual)
3. 15 min Speaking task s1: pairs describe their plans and ask follow-up questions. (pairs)
4. 10 min Selected students report their partner's plan to the class. (T-S)

Assessment: Listen for correct use of be going to during pair work.

Support: Provide the sentence frame from speaking task s1.

Core: Standard speaking task s1.

Extension: Ask students to compare two possible career choices.

Homework: Write a short paragraph about your future job plan.

Lesson 4 · Will/Won't: Offers, Promises, Predictions (40 min)

Target language: will/won't

Materials: board, grammar worksheet

1. 5 min Show notice sentences with will and elicit when it's used. (T-S)
2. 10 min Explain rule bilingually: instant decisions, offers, promises, predictions. (T-S)
3. 10 min Gap-fill practice choosing will/won't in context. (individual)
4. 10 min Situational speaking: students respond with instant offers to short prompts (e.g. 'The bag is heavy'). (pairs)
5. 5 min Class feedback and correction of common mistakes. (T-S)

Assessment: Monitor spontaneous use of will in situational speaking.

Support: Give a list of situation prompts with sentence starters.

Core: Standard gap-fill and situational speaking.

Extension: Ask students to write a promise and a prediction about future technology.

Homework: Write 5 original sentences: 2 offers, 2 promises, 1 prediction with will.

Lesson 5 · Be Going To vs Will (40 min)

Target language: be going to vs will

Materials: board, comparison handout

1. 5 min Review both forms with quick oral examples. (T-S)
2. 10 min Present the comparison table: planned decision vs instant decision. (T-S)
3. 15 min Mixed practice: students choose the correct form for various contexts. (individual)
4. 10 min Pair check and discussion of tricky items. (pairs)

Assessment: Review mixed-practice worksheet for accuracy.

Support: Highlight key context clues (already decided vs decided now).

Core: Standard mixed practice worksheet.

Extension: Ask students to write a short paragraph mixing both forms correctly.

Homework: Complete 8 mixed be going to/will practice questions.

Lesson 6 · Present Continuous for Future Arrangements (40 min)

Target language: present continuous for future

Materials: board, diary handout

1. 5 min Show notice sentences with present continuous for arrangements. (T-S)
2. 10 min Explain rule bilingually and compare briefly with be going to. (T-S)
3. 10 min Students fill in a personal diary with 4-5 real or imagined arrangements. (individual)
4. 10 min Pairs ask and answer about each other's diary using present continuous. (pairs)
5. 5 min Class feedback. (T-S)

Assessment: Check diary sentences and pair Q&A for correct form.

Support: Provide a diary template with example entries.

Core: Standard diary activity.

Extension: Ask students to write a short paragraph describing their busy week.

Homework: Write 5 sentences about your arrangements for next week.

Lesson 7 · Phone Language and Vocabulary (40 min)

Target language: telephone phrases

Materials: board, phrase cards

1. 5 min Elicit any phone phrases students already know. (T-S)
2. 10 min Present new phone vocabulary and phrases with examples. (T-S)
3. 10 min Students match phrases to situations (opening, holding, closing a call). (pairs)
4. 10 min Short chain drill: students practise short phone exchanges using the phrases. (pairs)
5. 5 min Class round-up of useful phrases. (T-S)

Assessment: Monitor pair drill for correct phrase use.

Support: Provide a phrase bank on the board throughout.

Core: Standard matching and drill activity.

Extension: Ask students to invent one extra polite phone phrase.

Homework: Learn the 5 new phone phrases for a quiz.

Lesson 8 · Listening: Booking an Appointment (40 min)

Target language: future forms + phone phrases

Materials: listening transcript I1, question handout

1. 5 min Pre-listening: predict what information will be exchanged. (T-S)
2. 10 min First listen (read transcript aloud or play recording): answer gist questions. (individual)
3. 10 min Second listen: answer detailed comprehension questions I1. (individual)
4. 10 min Pair check answers and discuss polite phrases used. (pairs)
5. 5 min Class feedback and correction. (T-S)

Assessment: Check listening comprehension answers.

Support: Provide the transcript in written form for weaker students during the second listen.

Core: Standard two-listen comprehension task.

Extension: Ask students to identify every future form used in the transcript.

Homework: Write your own 6-line phone dialogue booking an appointment.

Lesson 9 · Speaking: Phone Role-Play (40 min)

Target language: phone phrases + future forms

Materials: role card handout

1. 5 min Review key phone phrases and future forms from previous lessons. (T-S)
2. 5 min Assign roles and distribute role cards for speaking task s2. (T-S)
3. 15 min Pairs perform the phone role-play, then switch roles with a new scenario. (pairs)
4. 10 min Two or three pairs perform their role-play for the class. (T-S)
5. 5 min Class feedback on language and politeness. (T-S)

Assessment: Assess role-play using the speaking rubric.

Support: Provide a full phrase bank on the role card.

Core: Standard role-play with two scenarios.

Extension: Add a complication (fully booked diary) for stronger pairs to negotiate.

Homework: Write up your best role-play as a short dialogue.

Lesson 10 · Reading: Future Jobs and Interview Skills (40 min)

Target language: review of future forms in context

Materials: reading texts r1 and r2, question handout

1. 5 min Pre-reading discussion questions for r1. (T-S)
2. 10 min Read r1 individually and answer comprehension questions. (individual)
3. 10 min Pair check answers for r1 and discuss. (pairs)
4. 10 min Read r2 and answer comprehension questions individually. (individual)
5. 5 min Class discussion using the after-reading questions. (T-S)

Assessment: Check comprehension question accuracy for both texts.

Support: Pre-teach 3-4 difficult words before reading.

Core: Standard two-text reading comprehension.

Extension: Ask students to summarise one text in 3 sentences.

Homework: Write 3 more comprehension questions about r1 or r2 for a partner to answer.

Lesson 11 · Review and Writing: Future Jobs (40 min)

Target language: review of all theme grammar and vocabulary

Materials: review question handout, writing task w1

1. 10 min Complete a set of mixed review questions covering grammar, vocabulary, reading, and listening. (individual)
2. 5 min Pair check and class feedback on the review questions. (pairs)
3. 20 min Plan and write writing task w1 (future job plans paragraph). (individual)
4. 5 min Peer-check writing using the checklist from w1. (pairs)

Assessment: Assess writing task w1 against the writing rubric.

Support: Provide the sentence starters and vocabulary list from w1.

Core: Standard writing task w1 with checklist self-check.

Extension: Ask stronger students to add a second paragraph about possible obstacles to their plan.

Homework: Finish and proofread the w1 paragraph for next lesson.