Activity Cards

Regret or Guess?

Grammar · 10-15 min · Pairs

Students sort sentence cards into 'criticism/regret' (should have) and 'certainty about the past' (must have/might have) categories.

Certainty Scale Line-Up

Grammar · 10 min · Groups of 4-5

Students physically line up according to certainty level (couldn't have – might have – must have) while holding sentence cards.

Feelings Vocabulary Bingo

Vocabulary · 15 min · Whole class

Students practise theme vocabulary (confide, burden, vulnerable, etc.) through a bingo game with definitions read aloud.

Mystery Object Guessing Game

Speaking · 15 min · Groups of 3-4

Students guess the story behind a mystery object using might have / must have / couldn't have.

Apology Role-Play Cards

Speaking · 10-15 min · Pairs

Students role-play a short apology conversation using should have / shouldn't have based on a situation card.

Detective Case File

Writing · 15-20 min · Individual

Students write a short 'case file' paragraph explaining their theory about a mystery using all three certainty modals.

Reduced Forms Listening Dash

Listening · 10 min · Whole class

Students listen to short sentences and identify whether they heard should've, could've, or must've.

Regret Timeline

Reading · 15 min · Pairs

Students reread a theme text and create a simple timeline of events, marking where characters express regret or certainty.
