

Lesson Plans

Lesson 1 · Introducing Friendship Vocabulary (40 min)

Target language: Vocabulary for describing friends and friendship (loyal, reliable, trustworthy, get along with...)

Materials: Vocabulary handout, Board, Photos of people to describe

1. 5 min Warm-up: students brainstorm words that describe a good friend. (T-S)
2. 10 min Present new vocabulary with example sentences and Turkish translations. (T-S)
3. 10 min Students match words to definitions in pairs. (pairs)
4. 10 min Students describe a friend orally to a partner using at least three new words. (pairs)
5. 5 min Whole-class feedback and correction of common errors. (T-S)

Assessment: Teacher monitors pair descriptions and checks vocabulary matching activity.

Support: Provide a word bank and sentence starters for weaker students.

Core: Students use at least three new words accurately in their description.

Extension: Students add a second friend and compare the two using new vocabulary.

Homework: Learn the 10 new words and write one original sentence for each.

Lesson 2 · Noticing Relative Clauses (40 min)

Target language: Defining relative clauses with who/which/that/whose

Materials: Notice sentences on the board, Reading text r1 (first two paragraphs)

1. 5 min Warm-up: show four notice sentences and ask students what the marked words have in common. (T-S)
2. 10 min Guide students to notice that who/which/whose follow a noun and add information about it. (T-S)
3. 10 min Read the first two paragraphs of r1 aloud and highlight relative clauses together. (T-S)
4. 10 min Students complete the 'complete' discover activity from g1 individually, then check in pairs. (individual/pairs)
5. 5 min Whole-class check of answers and quick error correction. (T-S)

Assessment: Teacher checks discover activity answers for accuracy.

Support: Provide the answers as a matching exercise instead of open gaps.

Core: Students correctly identify and complete relative pronoun gaps.

Extension: Students find and underline two more relative clauses elsewhere in the reading text.

Homework: Complete the remaining 'complete' items from g1 not finished in class.

Lesson 3 · Building Sentences with Relative Pronouns (40 min)

Target language: Combining two sentences with who/which/that/whose

Materials: Build activity cue cards from g1, Worksheet with sentence pairs

1. 5 min Review who/which/that/whose with a quick oral drill. (T-S)
2. 10 min Model combining two sentences into one using the example from the build activity. (T-S)
3. 15 min Students work through the 'build' cues in pairs, combining sentences. (pairs)
4. 5 min Pairs share two of their combined sentences with the class. (pairs/T-S)
5. 5 min Teacher corrects common combining errors on the board. (T-S)

Assessment: Teacher monitors pair work and reviews combined sentences for accuracy.

Support: Provide sentence halves already partly joined, leaving only the pronoun blank.

Core: Students accurately combine at least four sentence pairs.

Extension: Students write two of their own original sentence pairs and combine them.

Homework: Write three original sentence pairs about friends and combine them at home.

Lesson 4 · Where, When, Why in Relative Clauses (40 min)

Target language: Relative adverbs where/when/why

Materials: Board, Sentence strips with where/when/why gaps

1. 5 min Warm-up: elicit a place, a time, and a reason connected to friendship from students. (T-S)
2. 10 min Present where/when/why with example sentences from the notice section. (T-S)
3. 15 min Students sort sentence strips into where/when/why categories in small groups. (groups)
4. 5 min Groups present one sentence from each category. (groups/T-S)
5. 5 min Quick individual gap-fill check using new vocabulary and relative adverbs. (individual)

Assessment: Teacher checks group sorting and the final gap-fill for accuracy.

Support: Reduce the number of sentence strips and provide clearer category headers.

Core: Students correctly sort and produce sentences with where/when/why.

Extension: Students write one extra sentence using 'why' about a personal friendship event.

Homework: Complete three gap-fill sentences using where/when/why from the practice set.

Lesson 5 · Defining vs. Non-defining Clauses (40 min)

Target language: Comma use in defining vs. non-defining relative clauses

Materials: Compare table from g2, Board

1. 5 min Warm-up: show two similar sentences, one with commas and one without, and ask what's different. (T-S)
2. 10 min Present the rule: defining = essential, no commas; non-defining = extra, commas. (T-S)
3. 15 min Students complete the discover 'complete' activity from g2 in pairs. (pairs)
4. 5 min Pairs check answers with another pair. (pairs)
5. 5 min Whole-class review of tricky items and common mistakes. (T-S)

Assessment: Teacher reviews pair answers for correct comma use.

Support: Highlight already-named people (like 'my mother') as a clue for non-defining clauses.

Core: Students correctly identify defining vs. non-defining in most items.

Extension: Students create two of their own sentences, one defining and one non-defining.

Homework: Complete the g2 practice items not finished in class.

Lesson 6 · Reading: The Friend Who Never Gave Up on Me (40 min)

Target language: Relative clauses in context; inferring attitude

Materials: Reading text r1, Question handout

1. 5 min Pre-reading: discuss the before-reading prompts as a class. (T-S)
2. 10 min Students read the text silently and underline relative clauses they find. (individual)
3. 15 min Students answer the reading questions individually, then compare in pairs. (individual/pairs)
4. 5 min Whole-class check of answers with reference to the text. (T-S)
5. 5 min Discuss the after-reading questions as a class. (T-S)

Assessment: Teacher checks reading comprehension question answers.

Support: Pre-teach two or three difficult words before reading and allow pair reading.

Core: Students answer at least four of six questions correctly.

Extension: Students identify and explain two examples of non-defining clauses in the text.

Homework: Write a two-sentence summary of the reading text using at least one relative clause.

Lesson 7 · Reading: Our Ten-Year Reunion (40 min)

Target language: Scanning for specific information; relative clauses in context

Materials: Reading text r2, Question handout

1. 5 min Pre-reading: predict what happens at a class reunion. (T-S)
2. 5 min First reading (fast): students scan for names of people mentioned. (individual)
3. 15 min Second reading: students answer comprehension questions individually. (individual)
4. 10 min Pairs compare and justify answers using evidence from the text. (pairs)
5. 5 min Class discussion of the after-reading questions. (T-S)

Assessment: Teacher reviews question answers and monitors pair justification discussion.

Support: Give students the paragraph number where each answer can be found.

Core: Students answer at least four of six questions correctly with textual evidence.

Extension: Students write one additional question about the text for a partner to answer.

Homework: Find and write out two relative clauses from the text, labelling defining or non-defining.

Lesson 8 · Listening and Asking for Clarification (40 min)

Target language: Phrases for asking for and giving clarification

Materials: Listening transcript l1 (read aloud or recorded), Question handout

1. 5 min Pre-listening: discuss the pre-listening prompts as a class. (T-S)
2. 10 min Play/read the dialogue once; students listen for general meaning. (individual)
3. 10 min Play/read again; students answer the listening questions. (individual)
4. 10 min In pairs, students list the clarification phrases they heard and practise a short exchange using them. (pairs)
5. 5 min Whole-class check of answers and clarification phrases. (T-S)

Assessment: Teacher checks listening comprehension answers and monitors pair practice.

Support: Provide a transcript excerpt with clarification phrases highlighted.

Core: Students correctly answer at least three of five listening questions and identify two clarification phrases.

Extension: Students write one extra line of dialogue continuing the conversation, using a clarification phrase.

Homework: Write three original clarification questions you could ask a friend.

Lesson 9 · Speaking: Describing a Friend and Asking for Clarification (40 min)

Target language: Describing people with relative clauses; clarification phrases

Materials: Speaking task s1 handout, Useful language list

1. 5 min Model the task: teacher describes a friend using relative clauses; students listen for clarity. (T-S)
2. 5 min Students note down three facts about a friend they will describe. (individual)
3. 20 min Students complete speaking task s1 in pairs, describing friends and asking for clarification. (pairs)
4. 5 min Two or three pairs perform a short version for the class. (T-S)
5. 5 min Teacher gives feedback on pronunciation and clause use. (T-S)

Assessment: Teacher monitors pair speaking and notes use of relative clauses and clarification language.

Support: Give students a simple template: name / who.../ where.../ why I like them.

Core: Students use at least three relative clauses and one clarification exchange.

Extension: Students add a comparison between two friends using non-defining clauses.

Homework: Write the description you gave orally as a short paragraph.

Lesson 10 · Writing a Portrait of a Friend (40 min)

Target language: Descriptive paragraph writing using relative clauses

Materials: Writing task w1 handout, Checklist

1. 5 min Review useful vocabulary and structures for describing a friend. (T-S)
2. 10 min Students plan their paragraph using the planning steps from w1. (individual)
3. 15 min Students write their first draft of the portrait paragraph. (individual)
4. 5 min Students swap paragraphs with a partner and check against the checklist. (pairs)
5. 5 min Students revise their paragraph based on peer feedback. (individual)

Assessment: Teacher collects paragraphs and checks for correct use of relative clauses.

Support: Provide a paragraph frame with gaps for students to fill in.

Core: Students write a paragraph with at least four correctly used relative clauses.

Extension: Students add a comparison sentence between their friend and themselves.

Homework: Finalise and neatly rewrite the portrait paragraph for submission.

Lesson 11 · Review and Theme Test (40 min)

Target language: Mixed review of vocabulary, grammar, reading, listening and writing from the theme

Materials: Review question set, Theme test handout

1. 10 min Whole-class quick review game using the theme's review questions. (T-S)
2. 5 min Quick pair practice: one student asks for clarification, the other gives it, using theme phrases. (pairs)
3. 20 min Students complete the theme test individually. (individual)
4. 5 min Whole-class check of test answers and final questions. (T-S)

Assessment: Theme test results and review activity performance.

Support: Allow extra time and a vocabulary/grammar reference sheet during the test.

Core: Students complete the theme test with at least 70% accuracy.

Extension: Students who finish early write one extra sentence comparing two friends using a non-defining clause.

Homework: Complete any unfinished homework tasks from the theme's core/extension list.
