

Vocabulary

Vocabulary — 25 words

| Word                                                | IPA                  | Turkish              | Example                                                                             |
|-----------------------------------------------------|----------------------|----------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| acquaintance noun                     | /ə'kweɪntəns/        | tanıdık              | He's just an acquaintance, not a close friend, whom I met at a school event.        |
| loyal adj                             | /ˈlɔɪəl/             | sadık                | A loyal friend is someone who stays by your side even in difficult times.           |
| reliable adj                          | /rɪˈlaɪəbl/          | güvenilir            | Ayşe is the kind of friend who is always reliable when you need help.               |
| trustworthy adj                       | /ˈtrʌstwɜːrði/       | güvenilir            | I only share secrets with friends whom I find trustworthy.                          |
| bond noun                             | /bɒnd/               | bağ                  | The bond between the two friends grew stronger after the trip they took together.   |
| companion noun                        | /kəm'pæniən/         | arkadaş, yoldaş      | She was my companion on every school trip I ever went on.                           |
| outgoing adj                          | /ˈaʊtɡoʊɪŋ/          | girişken, dışa dönük | My friend, who is very outgoing, makes new friends wherever she goes.               |
| sincere adj                           | /sɪn'sɪr/            | samimi               | His sincere apology, which he gave in front of everyone, repaired their friendship. |
| get along (with) phrasal verb         | /ɡet ə'lə:ŋ/         | iyi geçinmek         | The classmates who get along best usually sit together at lunch.                    |
| have (something) in common expression | /hæv ɪn 'kɒmən/      | ortak yönü olmak     | The friends, who have a lot in common, enjoy the same hobbies and music.            |
| gathering noun                        | /ˈɡæðərɪŋ/           | toplantı, buluşma    | The gathering, which took place at Deniz's house, lasted until midnight.            |
| reunion noun                          | /riːˈjuːnjən/        | yeniden buluşma      | We are planning a reunion for the classmates who graduated five years ago.          |
| confide (in) verb                     | /kən'faɪd/           | sır vermek, güvenmek | She is the friend whom I confide in whenever something is bothering me.             |
| support (someone) verb                | /sə'pɔːrt/           | desteklemek          | The teammates who supported me during the competition became close friends.         |
| misunderstanding noun                 | /ˌmɪsʌndər 'stændɪŋ/ | yanlış anlama        | The misunderstanding, which started over a text message, was quickly cleared up.    |

| Word                                                                                                 | IPA                  | Turkish                         | Example                                                                         |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------|---------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| AbOnlinEnglish Upper Secondary — 11. Sınıf — Vocabulary · Orijinal içerik, TYMM müfredatıyla uyumlu. |                      |                                 |                                                                                 |
| clarify verb                                                                           | /ˈklærɪfaɪ/          | açıklığa kavuşturmak            | Could you clarify what you meant when you said the plan had changed?            |
| explain further expression                                                             | /ɪkˈspleɪn ˈfɜːrðər/ | daha fazla açıklamak            | I asked my friend to explain further because I hadn't understood the reason.    |
| rephrase verb                                                                          | /riːˈfreɪz/          | yeniden ifade etmek             | She rephrased her question so that her friend could understand it more easily.  |
| in other words expression                                                              | /ɪn ˈʌðər wɜːrds/    | başka bir deyişle               | In other words, what I meant was that we should meet earlier than planned.      |
| get confused expression                                                                | /ɡet kənˈfjuːzd/     | kafası karışmak                 | I got confused about the meeting place, so I asked my friend to clarify.        |
| make sense expression                                                                  | /meɪk sɛns/          | mantıklı olmak, anlaşılır olmak | Your explanation didn't make sense to me at first, so I asked another question. |
| generous adj                                                                           | /ˈdʒɛnərəs/          | cömert                          | He is a generous friend who always shares his notes before exams.               |
| supportive adj                                                                         | /səˈpɔːrtɪv/         | destekleyici                    | My classmates were very supportive when I was struggling with the project.      |
| childhood friend noun phrase                                                           | /ˈtʃaɪldhʊd frɛnd/   | çocukluk arkadaşı               | Elif is a childhood friend whom I have known since primary school.              |
| drift apart phrasal verb                                                               | /drɪft əˈpɑːrt/      | birbirinden uzaklaşmak          | The two friends drifted apart after one of them moved to another city.          |