Transcript · A Video Call with a New Friend

Elif Hi, Kasia! It's so nice to finally see you! I'm Elif, and I'm from Türkiye.

Kasia Hi, Elif! Nice to meet you too. I'm Kasia, and I'm Polish — I'm from Warsaw.

Elif Warsaw is the capital, isn't it? What's it like there?

Kasia Yes, it is! It's a big, busy city. You can visit the Old Town and see the Royal Castle — it's beautiful at night.

Elif That sounds amazing. Can you speak any other languages besides Polish?

Kasia Yes, I can speak English and a little German. What about you — what's your capital?

Elif Our capital is Ankara, but I live near İstanbul. You can visit incredible mosques and palaces there.

Kasia Wow, I'd love to see that one day! Can we talk again next week?

Elif Of course we can! Let's plan our International Day presentation together too.

Transcript · Planning the International Day Presentation

Deniz So, for International Day, we're presenting Azerbaijan. First, can you find out the capital city?

Elif Yes, I can check that tonight. I think it's Baku, but I'll confirm it.

Deniz Great. We also need the nationality and the official language — Azerbaijani, right?

Elif Right. And we should say what tourists can do there — I read you can see the Flame Towers in Baku.

Deniz Perfect, let's add that. Can you also find a fact about their national day?

Elif Sure, I can look that up too. Can you make the poster with the flag and the map?

Deniz Yes, I can do that tomorrow. Let's meet at break time to put it all together.

Elif Sounds good — see you at break!
