Simple Present Tense: Daily and Study Routines

1 · NOTICE

- I wake up at seven every morning.
- Zeynep revises her notes every evening.
- We don't have breakfast together on school days.
- He doesn't plan his homework before dinner.

Which sentences are about 'I/we' and which are about 'he/she'? What changes on the verb with he/she? How is the negative different for he/she?

2 · DISCOVER — A · COMPLETE THE RULE

Look at the Notice sentences again. Complete the rule with the words in the box.

base verb -s / -es don't doesn't

1. With I, you, we or they, we use the _____.
2. With he, she or it, we add _____ to the verb.
3. The negative with I, you, we or they is _____ + base verb.
4. The negative with he, she or it is _____ + base verb.

B Build sentences

Use the cues to write true sentences about routines. Look at the example first.

e.g. I wake up at seven

I wake up at seven.

1. Zeynep revise her notes every evening

2. we not / have breakfast together

3. he not / plan his homework early

4. my classmates repeat new words in class

5. Emir not / hand in his homework late

C Your turn

Write four sentences about your own daily or study routine: two affirmative and two negative.

I... I don't... My classmate... He/She doesn't...

RULE

We use the Simple Present Tense to talk about daily and study routines and habits. Use the base verb with I/you/we/they, and add -s/-es with he/she/it. Negative: don't (I/you/we/they), doesn't (he/she/it) + base verb.

TR Simple Present Tense, günlük ve çalışma rutinlerini, alışkanlıkları anlatmak için kullanılır. I/you/we/they ile fiilin yalın hâli, he/she/it ile fiile -s/-es eklenir. Olumsuzda I/you/we/they ile 'don't', he/she/it ile 'doesn't' kullanılır.

When?

We use this to talk about things we do every day or regularly — our daily and study routines and habits.

TR Her gün ya da düzenli olarak yaptığımız şeyleri; günlük ve çalışma rutinlerimizi, alışkanlıklarımızı anlatırken kullanırız.

POSITIVE	NEGATIVE	QUESTION	SHORT ANSWERS
I wake up at seven. Zeynep revises her notes every evening.	We don't have breakfast together. He doesn't plan his homework early.	Do you wake up early? Does Zeynep revise every evening?	Yes, I do. / No, I don't. Yes, she does. / No, she doesn't.

X WRONG	✓ RIGHT	WHY?
She revise her notes every evening.	She revises her notes every evening.	Add -s/-es to the verb with he/she/it. TR He/she/it ile fiile -s/-es eklenir.
He don't plan his homework.	He doesn't plan his homework.	Use 'doesn't' with he/she/it, not 'don't'. TR He/she/it olumsuzda 'doesn't' kullanılır, 'don't' değil.

A New Friend in Room 9B

- 1 My name is Emir, and today I have a new classmate — his name is Kerem, and he sits next to me in Room 9B. At first, we don't talk much, but at break time, Kerem asks me about my daily routine, and we quickly become friends.
- 2 I tell him about my typical school day. I wake up at half past six, get dressed quickly, and have a fast breakfast with my family. I check my timetable every morning before I leave the house, so I never forget my books.
- 3 Kerem laughs and says his morning routine is very different. He wakes up early too, but he doesn't have breakfast at home — he usually has it at school, at break time, with his new classmates. He combs his hair carefully and always plans his school bag the night before.
- 4 In class, Kerem takes notes quickly, but he also listens carefully to the teacher. I write more slowly, but I revise my notes every evening, and that habit helps me remember new words. We both hand in our homework on time, and our teacher says that's an excellent habit for a good student.
- 5 By the end of the day, Kerem and I aren't strangers any more — we're friends. Our friendship starts with a simple conversation about daily routines, but I think it's going to be a strong one.

1. What do you think a good study routine looks like?

2. Guess two habits a hardworking student might have.

Zeynep's Study Routine

- 1 My classmate Zeynep always has the best grades in our class, so one day I ask her about her study routine. She smiles and says it isn't a secret — she just has good habits.
- 2 Zeynep gets home from school at half past three, and she doesn't start studying immediately. First, she has a snack and rests for twenty minutes. Then she checks her timetable for tomorrow and plans her homework carefully.
- 3 She revises her notes every evening, usually for about forty-five minutes. She reads slowly and takes notes as she reads, because she says that helps her remember new information. She never leaves her homework until the last minute — she always hands it in early.
- 4 I ask her if studying every day is difficult, and she says no, because she does it in small steps, not all at once. On test days, she often repeats key vocabulary quietly to herself on the bus to school.
- 5 After we talk, I decide to try Zeynep's study routine myself. I don't become a perfect student overnight, but slowly, my new habits start to work — and my classmate Zeynep is happy to help me along the way.
