S1 Guess My Routine

Whole class, mingling · 10–12 dk

Think of a daily or study habit (real or invented, for creative-writing purposes). Walk around the class and answer your classmates' yes/no questions with Do/Does so they can guess your habit. Then guess theirs.

Do you do this every day?

Does it happen at home or at school?

Do you do it quickly or slowly?

Yes, I do. / No, I don't. / Yes, he/she does. / No, he/she doesn't.

1. Secretly choose a daily or study habit.
2. Find a partner and let them ask up to 5 yes/no questions with Do/Does.
3. Answer honestly with short answers.
4. Swap roles, then find a new partner.
5. After 4–5 rounds, share one interesting guess with the class.

S2 Interview: My Classmate's Study Habits

Pairs · 15–20 dk

Interview a partner about their daily routine and study habits: wake-up time, breakfast, homework routine, and how they revise. Take notes, then prepare to present your partner to the class.

What time do you usually wake up?

Do you plan your homework before or after dinner?

How often do you revise your notes?

This is [name]. He/She usually... He/She never...

1. In pairs, take turns asking the interview questions and noting the answers.
2. Check that you use Do/Does correctly in the questions.
3. Prepare 4–5 sentences introducing your partner and their routine.
4. Practise your short presentation with your partner.
5. Present your partner to a small group or the whole class.

W1 My Daily Routine

PLAN

1. Choose a friendly greeting to start your message.
2. Say what time lessons usually start and when break time is.
3. Describe one study habit using the Simple Present Tense.
4. Give one piece of advice using 'You should...' or 'Don't forget to...'.
5. End with a friendly closing line.
