Elif Hi, Deniz! I'm doing my English homework about family jobs. What does your mother do?

Deniz Hi, Elif! My mother is a pharmacist. She works at a pharmacy in the town centre.

Elif Oh, nice! Does she work every day?

Deniz No, she doesn't work on Sundays. What about your father?

Elif He's an electrician. He doesn't work in an office — he visits houses and fixes lights and wires.

Deniz That sounds interesting! Does he have the same work routine every day?

Elif No, it changes every day because every house has a different problem. What does your father do?

Deniz He works as a security guard at a shopping centre. He checks IDs and makes sure everyone is safe.

Elif That's great for our project! Let's write our notes and finish the homework together.

Kerem So, for Career Day, I'm presenting my mother's job. Can you help me plan it?

Ela Sure! First, what does your mother do exactly?

Kerem She's an accountant. She works in an office in the city centre.

Ela Good. We should also say what she does every day and if she works at weekends.

Kerem She checks numbers and prepares reports. She doesn't work at weekends.

Ela Perfect, let's add that. What about a photo for the poster?

Kerem I can bring a photo of her office. Can you help me practise the presentation tomorrow?

Ela Yes, I can. Let's meet at break time and practise together.

Kerem Great, see you at break!
