Simple Present: jobs and work activities (+, -, ?)

1 · NOTICE

- My aunt works as a bank clerk in the city centre.
- My uncle doesn't work at weekends — the shopping centre is closed on Sundays.
- Every day, my mother checks medicine and serves customers at the pharmacy.
- Does your cousin work in a shopping centre? — Yes, she does.

What do we add to the verb with he/she/it? How do we make the negative and the question in the Simple Present?

2 · DISCOVER — A · COMPLETE THE RULE

Look at the Notice sentences again. Complete the rule with the words in the box.

works doesn't Does base verb

1. With he/she/it, the verb usually takes -s: work → _____.
2. The negative is formed with _____ + base verb.
3. The question starts with _____ + subject + base verb?
4. After does/doesn't, we always use the _____ (no -s).

B Build sentences

Use the cues to write true or invented sentences about family jobs. Look at the example first.

e.g. My uncle work as a bank clerk

My uncle works as a bank clerk.

1. My aunt serve customers every day

2. He not / work at weekends

3. ? / your cousin work in a shopping centre

4. The security guard check IDs at the door

5. ? / she start work at eight o'clock

C Your turn

Write four sentences about a family member's job: what they do, where they work, and one thing they don't do at work.

He/She works as...

He/She works at/in...

Every day, he/she...

He/She doesn't...

RULE

We use the Simple Present to talk about regular, habitual actions like family members' jobs and work routines. Add -s/-es to the verb with he/she/it. Negative: doesn't + base verb. Question: Does + subject + base verb?

TR Şimdiki zaman (Simple Present), aile üyelerinin meslekleri ve iş rutinleri gibi düzenli, alışılmış eylemleri anlatmak için kullanılır. He/she/it ile fiile -s/-es eklenir. Olumsuzda 'doesn't' + yalın fiil, soruda 'Does' özneden önce gelir ve fiil yalın hâlde kalır.

When?

We use this to say what job a family member has, what they do at work, and to describe their work routine.

TR Aile üyelerinin ne iş yaptığını, işte ne yaptıklarını ve iş rutinlerini anlatırken kullanırız.

POSITIVE	NEGATIVE	QUESTION	SHORT ANSWERS
My mother works as a pharmacist.	My uncle doesn't work on Sundays.	Does your father work in an office?	Yes, he does. / No, he doesn't.
He checks IDs at the door.	She doesn't serve customers in the morning.	Does she start work at eight?	Yes, she does. / No, she doesn't.

X WRONG	✓ RIGHT	WHY?
---------	---------	------

~~My aunt work at a bank.~~

My aunt works at a bank.

Add -s to the verb with he/she/it.

TR He/she/it ile fiile -s eklenir.

~~Does your cousin works in a shop?~~

Does your cousin work in a shop?

After 'does', the verb stays in its base form — no -s.

TR Does'tan sonra fiil yalın hâlde kalır, -s almaz.

My Family, Different Jobs

- 1 Hi, everyone! My name is Deniz, and today I want to tell you about the different jobs in my family. We're not a family of teachers or doctors — we all do very different things!
- 2 My mother is a pharmacist, and she works at a small pharmacy in the town centre. Every day, she checks medicine and serves customers who need advice. She doesn't work on Sundays, so that's our family day together.
- 3 My father is an electrician. He doesn't work in an office — he visits different houses and fixes the lights and wires. His work routine changes every day, because every house has a different problem!
- 4 My aunt works as a bank clerk at a branch in the city centre. She serves customers, checks their information, and helps them with their money. My uncle, on the other hand, works at a big shopping centre nearby, where he's a security guard. He checks IDs and makes sure everyone is safe.
- 5 My cousin is still a student, but she works as a shop assistant at the weekend. She serves customers in a small clothes shop and says she loves talking to people all day.
- 6 Every family has different jobs and different work routines, but we all sit down together on Sunday and talk about our week. I think that's the best part!

- Guess two jobs that students might present on Career Day.

Career Day at Our School

- 1 Every autumn, our school organises a Career Day, and it's always one of the most interesting days of the year. Each student chooses one family member's job and prepares a short poster and presentation about it.
- 2 This year, I chose my aunt's job. She's a flight attendant, so I explained that she works on planes and travels to different cities every week. I made a poster with a photo of an airport and some facts about her work routine.
- 3 My classmate Ela presented her father's job. He's a mechanic, and he works in a garage near our neighbourhood. Ela explained that he fixes cars every day and sometimes works late in the evening when there's a lot of work.
- 4 Another classmate, Kerem, talked about his mother, who works as an accountant in an office in the city centre. He said she doesn't work with cars or customers — she works with numbers and computers all day.
- 5 In the afternoon, each student gave a short presentation and answered questions like 'Does your family member work at the weekend?' and 'What does a typical work day look like for them?' It was a great chance to practise speaking and learn about different jobs.
- 6 At the end of the day, our teacher said that Career Day helps us understand that every job is important, whether it's fixing cars, serving customers, or helping people with their money.
