Before you read

- Guess: what time do you think the school day starts?

My name is Mert and I'm a Year 10 student at an international school in İzmir. Our school day starts at 8:30, so I have to be punctual every morning. The caretaker, Mr Demir, opens the gate at 7:30, and by 8:25 the corridor is full of students.

At 8:30, we go to the assembly. The headteacher, Ms Whitfield, talks about the news of the week and important events, like sports day or a national day celebration. After assembly, we go to our classrooms.

We must wear a uniform, and we mustn't use our phones during lessons. If we have a problem, we can talk to the school counsellor, Mrs Aydoğan. She is very kind and always has time for students.

At break time, we go to the canteen or the library. The librarian, Mr Costa, helps us find books for our projects. We have to hand in our homework before 4 pm, so I usually work in the library after lessons.
