Second Conditional: Imaginary Present and Future Situations

We use the second conditional to talk about imaginary or unlikely situations in the present or future. The if-clause uses the past simple, and the main clause uses would + base verb.

İkinci koşul cümlesi (second conditional), şimdiki zamanda ya da gelecekte gerçek olmayan ya da olası olmayan hayalî durumları anlatmak için kullanılır. If cümlecğinde geçmiş zaman (past simple), ana cümlede would + yalın fiil kullanılır.

When? We use it to talk about situations that are not true now or are unlikely to happen, such as imagining healthier habits or different choices.

Şu anki gerçekliğe uymayan ya da gerçekleşme ihtimali düşük durumlar hakkında konuşurken (örn. sağlıklı alışkanlıklar, hayaller) kullanılır.

Positive

- If I ate more vegetables, I would feel healthier.
- She would sleep better if she exercised.

Negative

- If I weren't so stressed, I would sleep better.
- We wouldn't feel tired if we drank more water.

Question

- What would you do if you caught a cold?
- If you had more free time, would you exercise more?

Short answers

- Yes, I would. / No, I wouldn't.

Common mistakes

- ~~If I would have more time, I would relax.~~ → If I had more time, I would relax.
- ~~If she was tired, she will rest.~~ → If she was tired, she would rest.

1. If I _____ (eat) more vegetables, I would feel healthier.

- a. eat
- b. ate
- c. eats

2. She would feel better if she _____ (sleep) more.

- a. sleep
- b. slept
- c. sleeps

3. If you _____ a headache, what would you do?

- a. have
- b. had
- c. has

4. We _____ so stressed if we had more free time.

- a. wouldn't feel
 - b. don't feel
 - c. won't feel

5. If I _____ (not / be) so busy, I would sleep more.

6. _____ you exercise more if you had more time?

7. If I will have more time, I will relax. — True / False

8. If she drank more water, she wouldn't feel so tired. — True / False

9. A: What _____ you _____ (do) if you caught a cold?

10. B: I _____ (stay) at home and _____ (rest).

11. Make a question about an imaginary situation.

If Only: Regret and Strong Wishes

If only expresses a stronger wish or regret than 'I wish'. We use If only + past simple for a present situation we want to change, and If only + past perfect (had + past participle) for a past regret.

If only, 'I wish'den daha güçlü bir pişmanlık ya da dilek ifade eder. Şimdiki bir durumdan memnun değilsek If only + past simple; geçmişte olan bir şeyden pişmansak If only + past perfect (had + V3) kullanılır.

When? We use it when we regret a present situation or something we did or didn't do in the past, for example about our health habits.

Şu anki durumumuzdan ya da geçmişte yaptığımız/yapmadığımız bir şeyden pişmanlık duyduğumuzda kullanılır — örneğin sağlık alışkanlıkları hakkında.

Positive

- If only I had more energy today.
- If only I had gone to bed earlier last night.

Negative

- If only I didn't feel so tired.
- If only I hadn't eaten so much junk food.

Common mistakes

- ~~If only I have more time.~~ → If only I had more time.
- ~~If only I ate breakfast this morning. (dün sabah pişmanlık)~~ → If only I had eaten breakfast this morning.

1. If only I _____ (have) more energy today!

- a. have
- b. had
- c. having

2. If only she _____ (not / eat) so much junk food yesterday.

- a. didn't eat
- b. hadn't eaten
- c. doesn't eat

3. If only we _____ (get) more sleep every night.

- a. get
- b. got
- c. getting

4. If only he _____ (not / stay up) so late last night.

5. If only I _____ (feel) less stressed these days.

6. If only I have more free time. (about now) — True / False

7. If only I had drunk more water yesterday. — True / False

8. A: You look tired today. B: _____ I _____ (sleep) more last night!

9. I don't have enough time to relax. (Rewrite with If only.)

Wish + Past Simple (was/were): Wishing Things Were Different

Wish + past simple expresses a wish about a present situation that is not true. With I/he/she/it, 'were' is considered more correct ('was' is also common in everyday speech).

Wish + past simple, şimdiki zamanda gerçek olmayan bir durum için dilek/pişmanlık anlatır. I/he/she/it ile 'were' kullanılması daha doğru kabul edilir ('was' da günlük konuşmada kullanılabilir).

When? We use it when we are not happy with a present situation and wish it were different, for example about energy, stress, or habits.

Şu anki durumumuzdan memnun olmadığımızda ve onun farklı olmasını dilediğimizde kullanılır — örneğin enerji, stres ya da alışkanlıklar hakkında.

Positive

- I wish I were calmer before exams.
- She wishes she had more free time.

Negative

- We wish we didn't have so much stress.
- He wishes he didn't work so late.

Question

- Do you ever wish you were less busy?

Short answers

- Yes, I do. / No, I don't.

Common mistakes

- ~~I wish I am less stressed.~~ → I wish I were less stressed.
- ~~She wish she has more time.~~ → She wishes she had more time.

1. I wish I _____ (be) calmer before exams.

- a. am
- b. was
- c. were

2. She wishes she _____ (have) more energy.

- a. have
- b. has
- c. had

3. We wish we _____ (not / have) so much homework.

5. I wish I _____ (sleep) eight hours a night.

6. I wish I am less stressed. — True / False

7. She wishes she had more free time. — True / False

8. A: Do you ever _____ you _____ (be) less busy?

9. B: Yes, I _____ I _____ (have) more time for myself.

10. Make a wish sentence about having less stress.

Adjectives Ending in -ing and -ed

Adjectives ending in -ing (interesting, exhausting, relaxing) describe what a thing or situation is like; adjectives ending in -ed (interested, exhausted, relaxed) describe how a person feels.

-ing ile biten sıfatlar (interesting, exhausting, relaxing) bir şeyin ya da durumun nasıl olduğunu anlatır; -ed ile biten sıfatlar (interested, exhausted, relaxed) bir kişinin nasıl hissettiğini anlatır.

When? We use these when talking about health, stress and well-being, to describe both situations and feelings.

Sağlık, stres ve iyi olma hâli hakkında konuşurken, hem durumları hem de hisleri anlatmak için kullanılır.

Positive

- The lesson was interesting.
- I felt exhausted after the match.

Negative

- The results weren't worrying.
- I wasn't interested in the topic.

Question

- Was the yoga class relaxing?

The Day I Caught the Flu

Before you read

- Look at the title. What do you think happens in this text?
- Guess: what are two common symptoms of the flu?

Last Monday, I woke up with a headache and a sore throat. I knew something wasn't right, so I told my mum I felt terrible. "If only I hadn't stayed up so late last week," I thought — maybe I wouldn't have caught a cold so easily.

My mum took my temperature and said I had a fever. She called the school and then took me to see Dr. Kaya, our family doctor. In the waiting room, I saw a nurse checking another patient's blood pressure.

Dr. Kaya listened to my symptoms and said, "You have the flu. If you rested and drank plenty of water, you would recover faster." She gave me some treatment and told me to stay in bed for a few days.

I wish I had taken better care of myself before I got sick — eating more vegetables and sleeping enough hours. Now I understand why it is so important to prevent illness, not just treat it.

After four days of rest, I finally felt better. The whole experience was exhausting, but it also taught me a useful lesson about listening to my body and looking after my well-being.

1. What is the text mainly about?
 - a. A visit to the dentist
 - b. A student's experience of getting the flu and recovering
 - c. A school health lesson
2. What symptoms did the writer have first?
 - a. A headache and a sore throat
 - b. A broken arm
 - c. A skin rash
3. Who did the writer's mum take them to see?
 - a. A nurse at school
 - b. Dr. Kaya, the family doctor
 - c. A pharmacist
4. In paragraph 3, 'She' refers to...
 - a. the nurse
 - b. Dr. Kaya
 - c. the writer's mum
5. What does the writer wish they had done differently?
 - a. Taken better care of themselves before getting sick
 - b. Gone to school anyway
 - c. Never seen a doctor

6. According to the doctor, resting and drinking water would help the writer recover faster. — True / False

Small Habits, Big Changes

Before you read

- What does 'well-being' mean to you? Think of one example.
- Guess: what are two small habits that can improve well-being?

For our end-of-theme project, our class decided to create a Well-Being Challenge for the whole school. We wanted to show that small habits can make a big difference to how people feel.

First, we researched simple changes: drinking more water, walking for ten minutes after lessons, and going to bed at the same time every night. If more students tried these habits, they would probably feel less tired and stressed.

We also learned about mindfulness — taking a few quiet minutes to breathe and relax. One student said, "I wish I had discovered mindfulness earlier — it really helps me cope with stress before exams."

For the future, our group decided to set a goal: to build one new healthy habit every month. We know it takes time, but a sustainable lifestyle doesn't happen overnight.

In the end, we designed a short show about health and well-being, with characters like a doctor, a nurse and a patient, to present our ideas to the school in a fun and memorable way.

1. What is the text mainly about?

- a. A class project about well-being habits
- b. A history lesson
- c. A sports competition

2. What are two habits the class researched?

- a. Drinking more water and walking after lessons
- b. Playing video games and staying up late
- c. Skipping breakfast and studying all night

3. What goal did the group set for the future?

- a. To build one new healthy habit every month
- b. To stop doing homework
- c. To sleep less

4. How does the writer probably feel about the project?

- a. Bored
- b. Positive and proud of what they learned
- c. Confused

5. The class's final show included characters like a doctor, a nurse and a patient. — True / False

6. What did mindfulness help one student with?

- AbOnlineEnglish Upper Secondary — Lise Hazırlık — Complete Theme · Orijinal içerik, TYMM müfredatıyla uyumlu.
- a. Coping with stress before exams
 - b. Doing sports
 - c. Eating lunch

After you read

- What is one small habit you could try this month for your own well-being?
- Design one more character or scene idea for a class show about well-being.

- b. He hurt his leg
- c. He forgot his homework

2. What does Ege regret about yesterday?

- a. Eating too much junk food
- b. Not doing his homework
- c. Missing a class

3. What does the nurse tell Ege to do?

- a. Rest and drink water
- b. Go home immediately
- c. Call his parents right away

4. If Ege doesn't feel better, the nurse will call his parents. — True / False

5. What does Ege wish he ate more of?

- a. Vegetables
- b. Sweets
- c. Bread

Planning the Health Show

Before you listen

- You will hear two students planning a performance about health and well-being.
- Predict: what characters might they need for a show about a doctor's visit?

1. What are Deniz and Elif planning?

- a. A sports match
- b. A Well-Being Show
- c. A school trip

2. Who will play the nurse?

- a. Deniz
- b. Elif
- c. Mert

3. What does the doctor character say in the scene?

- a. 'If you rested more, you would feel much better.'
- b. 'You must wear a uniform.'
- c. 'Can I help you?'

4. They have to hand in their plan to Ms. Kaya by Friday. — True / False

5. Where will they meet to continue their planning?

- a. The canteen
- b. The library
- c. The health room

Find Someone Who... (Well-Being Habits)

Whole class, mingling · 10-12 dk

Walk around the class and ask your classmates questions with the second conditional, wish and if only to find someone who matches each sentence. Write their name next to the sentence.

Useful language: If you had more free time, what would you do?, Do you ever wish you slept more?, If only I had..., I would feel better if I...

1. Look at your worksheet: 6 sentences about well-being (e.g. '...wishes they exercised more').
2. Stand up and ask a classmate a question to check if the sentence is true for them.
3. If it's true, write their name. If not, ask another classmate.
4. Try to find a different name for each sentence.
5. Sit down and share two interesting answers with the class.

Doctor and Patient Role-Play

Pairs · 8-10 dk

With a partner, act out three short situations at a health room: one of you is a patient describing symptoms, and the other is a doctor or nurse giving advice.

Useful language: I have a..., If you rested more, you would feel better., I wish I hadn't..., You should...

1. Read the three situation cards (a headache, a stomachache, feeling exhausted).
2. Decide who is the Patient and who is the Doctor/Nurse.
3. Act out each situation: describe the symptom and give advice using the second conditional or wish.
4. Swap roles and do it again with new situations.
5. Perform your favourite situation for another pair.

Writing

My Well-Being Poster

60-80 words

Write the text for a poster titled 'Tips for a Healthy, Balanced Life' for other students. Include at least two sentences with the second conditional and one with wish or if only.

Plan:

1. Choose a title for your poster.
2. List 4-5 tips using the second conditional, wish or if only.
3. Add one sentence explaining why well-being is important.
4. Check your grammar and punctuation.

Checklist:

- ☐ I used at least two sentences with the second conditional.
- ☐ I used at least one sentence with wish or if only.
- ☐ I used at least three target words from Vocabulary.
- ☐ I checked my spelling and capital letters.

A Scene for Our Health Show

70-100 words

Write a short scene (a dialogue with 6-8 lines) for the class performance assignment: a health and well-being drama play. Include two or three characters (for example, a patient, a doctor, and a nurse) and use at least two of this theme's grammar points.

Plan:

1. Choose your characters and where the scene happens (e.g. the school health room, a doctor's office).
2. Decide what the problem is (e.g. a symptom, a piece of advice, a wish for better habits).
3. Write 6-8 lines of dialogue.
4. Read it aloud with a partner and time it — it should take about 30 seconds.

Checklist:

- ☐ I have two or three clear characters.
- ☐ I used the second conditional, wish, if only, or -ing/-ed adjectives.
- ☐ My dialogue makes sense and has 6-8 lines.
- ☐ I practised reading it aloud.
