

Speaking

Find Someone Who...

Whole class, mingling · 10-12 dk

Walk around the class and ask your classmates questions with Are you going to...?, Do you...? and Will you...? to find someone who matches each sentence about family life. Write their name next to the sentence.

Useful language: Are you going to visit your grandparents this weekend?, Do you do chores with your family?, Will you help your family with something this week?, Yes, I am. / No, I'm not. / Yes, I will. / No, I won't.

1. Look at your worksheet: 6 sentences about family life (e.g. '...is going to see relatives this weekend').
2. Stand up and ask a classmate a question to check if the sentence is true for them.
3. If it's true, write their name. If not, ask another classmate.
4. Try to find a different name for each sentence.
5. Sit down and share two interesting answers with the class.

Our Weekend Plans — Role-Play

Pairs · 8-10 dk

With a partner, act out a short conversation between two family members planning what they are going to do this weekend.

Useful language: What are we doing this weekend?, I think we should..., We are going to..., I will..., I promise.

1. Choose your roles: two family members (e.g. brother and sister, or parent and child).
2. Decide on three activities for the weekend (a chore, a hobby, a family visit).
3. Act out the conversation using will, be going to and the Present Progressive.
4. Swap roles and do it again with new activities.
5. Perform your favourite conversation for another pair.

Writing

My Family's Weekend Plan

Write a short text about what your family is going to do next weekend. Include at least two sentences with be going to and one with will.

Plan:

1. Choose 3-4 activities your family will do.
2. Decide which are fixed plans (going to / Present Progressive) and which are predictions or promises (will).
3. Write your sentences in a logical order (morning, afternoon, evening).
4. Check your grammar and punctuation.

Checklist:

- ☐ I used at least two sentences with be going to.
- ☐ I used at least one sentence with will.
- ☐ I used at least three target words from Vocabulary.
- ☐ I checked my spelling and capital letters.

Our Family Life Project Plan

70-100 words

Write a short plan for the class project about family life. Describe the roles, routines, hobbies and relationships in a family (your own or an imaginary one), and say what your group is going to do to prepare the project.

Plan:

1. Choose the family members you will describe (e.g. parents, siblings, grandparents).
2. List one routine, one hobby, and one way family members support each other.
3. Say what your group is going to do this week to prepare (interview, poster, presentation).
4. Read your plan aloud and check it makes sense.

Checklist:

- ☐ I described at least one routine and one hobby.
- ☐ I described how family members support each other.
- ☐ I said what my group is going to do to prepare.
- ☐ I used at least three grammar structures from this theme.
