

Vocabulary

Vocabulary — 30 words

| Word                                   | IPA                  | Turkish                       | Example                                                                                |
|----------------------------------------|----------------------|-------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| capital city noun        | /ˈkæpɪtl ˈsɪti/      | başkent                       | Paris is the capital city of France.                                                   |
| population noun          | /ˌpɒpjʊˈleɪʃn/       | nüfus                         | Tokyo has a huge population of over 13 million people.                                 |
| government building noun | /ˈɡʌvənmənt ˈbɪldɪŋ/ | hükümet binası                | The government building in the capital is guarded day and night.                       |
| relocate verb            | /ˌriːləʊˈkeɪt/       | yer değiştirmek, taşımak      | Brazil decided to relocate its capital from Rio de Janeiro to Brasília.                |
| administrative adjective | /ədˈmɪnɪstrətɪv/     | idari, yönetimle ilgili       | Some countries have an administrative capital that is different from the biggest city. |
| diplomat noun            | /ˈdɪpləmət/          | diplomat                      | Diplomats from many countries work in embassies in the capital.                        |
| landmark noun            | /ˈlændmɑːk/          | simge yapı, dikkat çekici yer | The Eiffel Tower is the most famous landmark in Paris.                                 |
| monument noun            | /ˈmɒnjumənt/         | anıt                          | The monument was built to remember the soldiers who died in the war.                   |
| ancient adjective        | /ˈeɪnfənt/           | antik, eski                   | The pyramids are ancient structures that are more than 4,000 years old.                |
| construction noun        | /kənˈstrʌkʃn/        | inşaat, yapım                 | The construction of the tower took more than two years.                                |
| breathhtaking adjective  | /ˈbreθteɪkɪŋ/        | nefes kesici                  | The view from the top of the mountain was absolutely breathtaking.                     |
| heritage noun            | /ˈherɪtɪdʒ/          | miras                         | The old city centre is protected as a World Heritage Site.                             |
| attract verb             | /əˈtrækt/            | çekmek, ilgisini çekmek       | The castle attracts thousands of tourists every summer.                                |
| custom noun              | /ˈkʌstəm/            | gelenek, adet                 | It is a local custom to remove your shoes before entering a house.                     |
| etiquette noun           | /ˈetɪket/            | görgü kuralları               | Table etiquette is very different in Japan compared to Italy.                          |
| greeting noun            | /ˈɡriːtɪŋ/           | selamlaşma                    | A handshake is a common greeting in many Western countries.                            |

| Word                                                                                                     | IPA                | Turkish                      | Example                                                                           |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------|------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| AbOnlinEnglish Upper Secondary — Lise Hazırlık — Vocabulary · Orijinal içerik, TYMM müfredatıyla uyumlu. |                    |                              |                                                                                   |
| cuisine noun                                                                               | /kwiˈzi:n/         | mutfak (yemek kültürü)       | Turkish cuisine is famous for its kebabs and mezes.                               |
| tradition noun                                                                             | /trəˈdɪʃn/         | gelenek                      | Drinking tea after a meal is a strong tradition in many cultures.                 |
| diverse adjective                                                                          | /daɪˈvɜ:s/         | çeşitli, çok yönlü           | The city has a diverse population with people from all over the world.            |
| misunderstanding noun                                                                      | /ˌmɪsʌndəˈstændɪŋ/ | yanlış anlaşılma             | Different body language can cause a misunderstanding between tourists and locals. |
| embassy noun                                                                               | /ɪmˈbæsi/          | büyükelçilik                 | Government buildings, embassies and diplomats fill the new capital.               |
| republic noun                                                                              | /rɪˈpʌblɪk/        | cumhuriyet                   | The young republic chose Ankara as its capital in 1923.                           |
| pyramid noun                                                                               | /ˈpɪrəˌmɪd/        | piramit                      | The ancient pyramids in Cairo attract millions of visitors every year.            |
| bow verb                                                                                   | /baʊ/              | eğilmek, selam vermek        | In Japan, people usually bow instead of shaking hands.                            |
| pour verb                                                                                  | /pɔːr/             | dökmek, doldurmak            | She poured her own drink and didn't realise it was against the custom.            |
| offend verb                                                                                | /əˈfend/           | gücendirmek, kırmak          | She was worried she might have offended her friend's grandmother.                 |
| destination noun                                                                           | /ˌdestɪˈneɪʃn/     | varış noktası, gidilecek yer | Rio remains a more famous tourist destination than Brasília.                      |
| medieval adjective                                                                         | /ˌmediˈi:vəl/      | ortaçağa ait                 | Bern's old town still has its medieval towers and narrow streets.                 |
| research verb                                                                              | /rɪˈsɜ:tʃ/         | araştırmak                   | You should have researched the local etiquette before you travelled.              |
| fascinating adjective                                                                      | /ˈfæsɪˌneɪtɪŋ/     | büyüleyici, ilgi çekici      | Our teacher said small cultural differences between countries are fascinating.    |