

Speaking

Guess Who?

Whole class, mingling · 10-12 dk

Think of a classmate without saying their name. Answer your partner's yes/no questions about appearance and personality until they guess who it is.

Useful language: Does this person have ...?, Is this person tall / shy / cheerful?, Yes, they do. / No, they don't., I think it's ...!

1. Silently choose a classmate in your mind — don't tell anyone yet.
2. Your partner asks up to 8 yes/no questions about appearance and personality.
3. Answer honestly with short answers (Yes, they do. / No, they aren't.).
4. Your partner tries to guess the name.
5. Swap roles and play again with a new person.

Practising the Interview

Pairs · 12-15 dk

With a partner, practise interviewing each other with the questions you will use for your real Fact File interview later this theme.

Useful language: How would you describe your appearance?, Are you shy or outgoing?, What do you usually wear?, I'm quite ... / I usually ...

1. Look at your list of 6-8 interview questions from the Writing task.
2. Decide who is Student A (interviewer) and who is Student B (answers first).
3. Student A asks the questions; Student B answers in full sentences.
4. Swap roles and repeat with Student B asking.
5. Give your partner one tip to improve their real interview later.

Writing

My Classmate's Fact File

70-100 words

After interviewing a classmate outside class, write their Fact File. Describe their appearance and personality clearly, using facts from your interview.

Plan:

1. Look back at your interview notes.
2. Organise your fact file into two parts: appearance, then personality.
3. Choose at least 4 vocabulary words and 2 grammar points from this theme.
4. Check your grammar and punctuation.

Checklist:

- ☐ I organised my fact file into appearance and personality.
- ☐ I used at least 4 target vocabulary words.
- ☐ I used Simple Present correctly.
- ☐ I checked my spelling and punctuation.

A Wanted Poster

50-70 words

Using the information from your classmate's Fact File, design a 'Wanted' poster for them: describe their appearance and personality so the class can guess who it is, without writing their name.

Plan:

1. Choose 3-4 key appearance details and 2 personality traits, without using the name.
2. Write short, clear sentences a classmate could guess from.
3. Add a fun 'Wanted for...' title (e.g. 'Wanted for being the most generous student!').
4. Check that your clues aren't too easy or too hard.

Checklist:

- ☐ I didn't write the classmate's name.
- ☐ I included appearance and personality clues.
- ☐ I used at least 3 target words.
- ☐ My poster is easy but not too easy to guess.
